The First Official Live Electric Album Alice in Chains, 2000 Although the title of this 15 song concert disc might sound unduly optimistic given AIC's dubious status over the past couple of years there's no denying the vitality that oozes from these grooves Culled from several separate appearances ranging from a 1990 gig in the band's hometown of Seattle to a 1996 show that stands as of now as its swan song Live packs plenty of primal power and a palpable undercurrent of menace The baritone growl of frontman Layne Staley while eerie throughout is at its most fearsome on the earliest tracks Bleed the Freak and Queen of the Rodeo both of which also feature original bassist Mike Starr Several songs recorded in Glasgow for the benefit of the BBC have more of an unhinged feel particularly Love Hate Love and a version of Junkhead that's all too effective in conveying the song's subtext By the time of the 1996 show the final date on the band's stint opening for Kiss there's an unmistakable distance between the band members a coolness that pervades Dam That River and A Little Bitter Still given the tension present in Alice in Chains' best work that's not an altogether inappropriate addition Live is a worthy if cautionary document for hard rock fans who are fond of the dark side Alice in Chains David de Sola, 2015-08-04 Four years after their first meeting at a warehouse under Seattle's Ballard Bridge Alice in Chains became the first of grunge's big four to get a gold record and achieve national recognition One of the loudest voices out of Seattle they became influential and successful But as the band got bigger so did its problems De Sola delves beneath the secrecy gossip and rumor surrounding the band to tell its full story for the first time Nothing Safe Alice in Chains, 2000-03 Guitar Recorded Versions This 15 song collection matches their popular best of the boxed set CD Includes note for note transcriptions of Again Angry Chair Down in a Hole Get Born Again Got Me Wrong Grind I Stay Away Iron Gland Man in the Box No Excuses Rooster Them Bones We Die Young What the Hell Have I Would Includes photos of the band
