Alkitab Indonesian Bible:

A History of Christianity in Indonesia Jan Sihar Aritonang, Karel Adriaan Steenbrink, 2008 Indonesia is the home of the largest single Muslim community of the world Its Christian community about 10% of the population has until now received no overall description in English Through cooperation of 26 Indonesian and European scholars Protestants and Catholics a broad and balanced picture is given of its 24 million Christians This book sketches the growth of Christianity during the Portuguese period 1511 1605 it presents a fair account of developments under the Dutch colonial administration 1605 1942 and is more elaborate for the period of the Indonesian Republic since 1945 It emphasizes the regional differences in this huge country because most Christians live outside the main island of Java Muslim Christian relations as well as the tensions between foreign missionaries and local theology receive special attention Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theologies M. Brett, J. Havea, 2014-12-17 Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theology focuses on what postcolonial theologies look like in colonial contexts particularly in dialogue with the First Nations Peoples in Australia and the Asia Pacific The contributors have roots in the Asia Pacific but the struggles theologies and concerns they address are shared across the seas Walking Through Bible Place Daud Soesilo, 2022-09-28 Thousands of years separate the biblical world from our present world The gaps in time language culture and place often make it difficult to read and understand biblical texts written long ago More often than not we have limited knowledge of the historical background of the Bible This book attempts to serve as one of the doors to enter the biblical world Through pictures and brief commentaries this book shows the places where Jesus set his feet on as well as other biblical sites in Israel Discover Why Lake Galilee has several names Tiberias Gennesaret Chinnereth Chinneroth How Jesus moved from Nazareth to Capernaum How Capernaum became the center of his ministry in Galilee An ancient olive tree which may have witnessed Jesus praying in the garden of Gethsemane How a British general proposed a new location for Calvary different from the site which has traditionally been accepted as Golgotha How 35 40% of the Arab population of modern Nazareth are Christians And how once a year Christians are allowed to commemorate the ascension of Jesus in a chapel that now functions as a mosque The author took the photos in this book when he was assigned to lead a group from the Bible Society of Singapore and Trinity Theological College to Israel , Prominent Indonesian Chinese Leo Suryadinata, 1995 The ethnic Chinese in Indonesia numbering more than six millions constitute the largest single group of ethnic Chinese in Southeast Asia They are economically strong culturally diversified and socially active This book presents the profiles of leading figures in the Indonesian Chinese community in the twentieth century in the economic political religious cultural academic and social fields This is the first systematic and comprehensive book of its kind It is useful for scholars interested in research on Indonesia or Chinese minorities in Southeast Asia generally First published in 1971 it was revised and developed into the present format in 1978 and has since been revised several times This is the third and most up to date version State Management of Religion in Indonesia Myengkyo Seo, 2013-07-18 Although Indonesia is generally considered to be a Muslim state and is indeed the world's most populous Muslim majority nation it has a sizeable Christian minority as a legacy of Dutch colonialism with Christians often occupying relatively high social positions This book examines the management of religion in Indonesia It discusses how Christianity has developed in Indonesia how the state though Muslim in outlook and culture is nevertheless formally secular and how the principal Christian church the Java Christian Church has adapted its practices to fit local circumstances It examines religious violence and charts the evolution of the state's religious policies analysing in particular the impact of the 1974 Marriage Law showing how it enabled extensive state regulation but how in practice rather than reinforcing religious divisions inter religious marriage involving the conversion of one party is widespread Overall the book shows how Indonesia is developing its own brand of secularism neither a full blooded Islamic state like Saudi Arabia nor an outright secular state like Turkey

Law and Religion in Indonesia Melissa Crouch, 2013-11-12 Understanding and managing inter religious relations particularly between Muslims and Christians presents a challenge for states around the world This book investigates legal disputes between religious communities in the world's largest majority Muslim democratic country Indonesia It considers how the interaction between state and religion has influenced relations between religious communities in the transition to democracy The book presents original case studies based on empirical field research of court disputes in West Java a majority Muslim province with a history of radical Islam These include criminal court cases as well as cases of judicial review relating to disputes concerning religious education permits for religious buildings and the crime of blasphemy The book argues that the democratic law reform process has been influenced by radical Islamists because of the politicization of religion under democracy and the persistence of fears of Christianization It finds that disputes have been localized through the decentralization of power and exacerbated by the central government's ambivalent attitude towards radical Islamists who disregard the rule of law Examining the challenge facing governments to accommodate minorities and manage religious pluralism the book furthers understanding of state religion relations in the Muslim world This accessible and engaging book is of interest to students and scholars of law and society in Southeast Asia as well as Islam and the state and the legal regulation of religious diversity
