Competition Paul David Beaumont,2024-06-24 In The Grammar of Status Competition Paul David Beaumont tackles the question of what status is and how to measure it in the field of international relations Given states statesmen and citizens care about and pursue status despite its difficulty to assess Beaumont argues that we can study international status hierarchies via states and citizens themselves who also grapple with this same status ambiguity Advancing a new theoretical framework for investigating how theories of international status TIS inform policy making this book will be useful to IR scholars and students looking to make sense of how states construct and compete in hierarchies of their own making

Learning, Marginalization, and Improving the Quality of Education in Low-income Countries Daniel A. Wagner, Nathan M. Castillo, Suzanne Grant Lewis, 2022-02-21 Improving learning evidence and outcomes for those most in need in developing countries is at the heart of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal on Education SDG4 This timely volume brings together contributions on current empirical research and analysis of emerging trends that focus on improving the quality of education through better policy and practice particularly for those who need improved learning at the bottom of the pyramid LBOP This volume brings together academic research experts government officials and field based practitioners National and global experts present multiple broad thematic papers ranging from the effects of migration and improving teaching to the potential of educational technologies and better metrics for understanding and financing education In addition local experts practitioners and policymakers describe their own work on LBOP issues being undertaken in Kenya India Mexico and Ivory Coast The contributors argue persuasively that learning equity is a moral imperative but also one that will have educational economic and social impacts They further outline how achieving SDG4 will take renewed and persistent effort by stakeholders to use better measurement tools to promote learning achievement among poor and marginalized children This volume builds on the second international conference on Learning at the Bottom of the Pyramid LBOP2 It will be an indispensable resource for policymakers researchers and government thinktanks and local experts as well as any readers interested in the implementation of learning equity across the globe The first volume Learning at the Bottom of the Pyramid LBOP1 may be obtained at <http://www.iiep.unesco.org/en/learning-bottom-pyramid-4608> Catalogue of Scientific Serials of All Countries Including the Transactions of Learned Societies in the Natural, Physical and Mathematical Sciences, 1633 - 1876 Samuel Hubbard Scudder, 1879
