Agius, Alexander Mallett, Catherine Rider, 2022-06-27 In this volume a microhistorical approach is employed to provide a transcription translation and case study of the proceedings written in Latin Italian and Arabic of the Roman Inquisition on Malta s 1605 trial of the Moorish slave Sellem Bin al Sheikh Mansur who was accused and found guilty of practising magic and teaching it to the local Christians Through both a detailed commentary and individual case studies it assesses what these proceedings reflect about religion society and politics both on Malta and more widely across the Mediterranean in the early 17th century In so doing this inter and multi disciplinary project speaks to a wide range of subjects including magic Christian Muslim relations slavery Maltese social history Mediterranean history and the Roman Inquisition It will be of interest to both students and researchers who study any of these subjects and will help demonstrate the richness and potential of the documents in the Maltese archives With contributions by Joan Abela Dionisius A Agius Paul Auchterlonie Jonathan Barry Charles Burnett Frans Ciappara Pierre Lory Alex Malett Ian Netton Catherine R Rider Liana Saif Houses and Domestic Space in Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Hospitaller Malta George A. Said-Zammit, 2020-12-29 Houses and Domestic Space in Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Hospitaller Malta is a study concerned with a wide spectrum of early modern dwellings in Malta ranging from palazzi and affluent residences to peasant dwellings troglodyte houses and hovels The multifaceted approach adopted in this book allows houses and domestic networks to be studied not only in terms of architecture and construction materials but also as places of human habitation where house dwellers act react and interact in different contexts and circumstances Dwellings are places that permit different social and economic activities whilst providing shelter and security to the household members Through the available sources the houses of Hospitaller Malta are analysed in terms of their spatial properties and how they generate privacy interaction and communication identity accessibility security visibility movement and encounters and equally important how domestic space relates to gender roles status and class This work therefore seeks to reach a deep and nuanced understanding of domestic space and how it relates to the islands history and the development of their society during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries

The Late Medieval Art and Architecture of the Maltese Islands Mario Buhagiar, 2005 Presents us with a comprehensive point of departure for the study of artistic developments in the Late Middle Ages from the Norman Conquest at the turn of the twelfth century to the coming of the Knights in 1530 This book shows us that Late Medieval Malta was not an artistic desert that patronage in Mdina was surprisingly well informed and that the Renaissance reached Malta before the coming of the Knights Architecture however lagged behind and the stylistic and technical innovations reflected the conservatism of an insular society Through the art and architecture of that period Professor Buhagiar outlines the Christianization and Latinization process that moved the islands away from a Muslim and North African bias to a South European sphere of influence The author s many years of meticulous research and academic activity have resulted in an excellently presented book that can be
