Black Athletes In The United States Bibliography 1800 1981:

Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 African Americans in Sports David K. Wiggins, 2015-03-26 This two volume set features 400 articles on African Americans in sports including biographical entries as well as entries on events tournaments leagues clubs films and associations The entries cover all professional amateur and college sports such as baseball tennis and golf The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed Sports Ethics in America Donald G. Jones, 1992-04-30 A significant topic in American society sports ethics has also been the subject of an increasing number of scholarly studies during the past two decades Moreover a growing number of courses on sports are being offered at colleges and universities In Sports Ethics in America Donald G Jones provides a valuable reference tool for teaching and research in a variety of sports related disciplines The book is a comprehensive multidisciplinary bibliography with some 2 800 entries Entries include both scholarly works and works written by journalists during the two decades from 1970 to 1990 The volume is divided into five major sections 1 General Works and Philosophy 2 The Team Players and Coaches 3 The Game Competition and Contestants 4 Sport and Society and 5 Reference Works Each entry includes a brief listing of the subjects covered in the work The volume also includes a full subject index and an author index Racism in the United States Meyer Weinberg, 1990-05-21 This volume represents the most comprehensive book length bibliography on the subject of racism available in the United States Compiler Meyer Weinberg has surveyed a wide ranging group of material and classified it under 87 subject headings drawing on articles books congressional hearings and reports theses and dissertations research reports and investigative journalism Historical references cover the long history of racism while the heightened awareness and activity of the recent past is also addressed in detail In addition to works that fit the narrow definition of racism as a mode of oppression or group denial of rights based on color Weinberg includes references dealing with sexism antisemitism economic exploitation and similar forms of dehumanization References are grouped under a series of subject headings that include Civil Rights Desegregation Housing Socialism and Racism Unemployment and Violence against Minorities Items which do not have self explanatory titles are annotated and virtually every section is thoroughly cross referenced Also included is one section of carefully selected references on racism in countries other than the United States Unlike the remainder of the book this section is not comprehensive but rather provides an opportunity to view racism comparatively The volume concludes with an author index This work will be a significant addition to both academic and public libraries as well as an important resource for courses in racism sociology and black history Reference Library of Black America Harry A. Ploski, James De Bois Williams, 1992 A Current Bibliography on African Affairs ,1982 Index to Afro-American Reference Resources ,1988-01-20 This volume makes a much needed contribution to the field of Afro American studies by providing subject access to a wealth of materials on the black experience in the Americas Sources include titles generally considered to be reference tools such as dictionaries encyclopedias catalogs indexes abstracts bibliographies and resource guides as well as selected resources such as classic history texts and anthologies that fall outside the traditional reference area Throughout the emphasis is on the United States although a significant number of citations from Canada the Caribbean and South America are also included This index to Afro American reference sources covers specific chapters and subdivisions within works in addition to providing general subject access to entire works that include helpful information on the black experience The Unlevel Playing Field David Kenneth Wiggins, Patrick B. Miller, 2003 A comprehensive study of black participation in sports since slavery reveals a checkered history of prejudice and cultural bias that have plagued American sports from the beginning Reference, Selected Reference Tools in African American Subject Areas, Indiana University-Bloomington Library, Reference Department, Research Collection Indiana University. Libraries, 1990
