Thelathia Nikki Young

Black And Queer:

The Black Queer Work of Ratchet Nikki Lane, 2019-11-27 This book enters as a corrective to the tendency to trivialize and mis appropriate African American language practices The word ratchet has entered into a wider whiter American discourse the same way that many words in African American English have through hip hop and social media Generally ratchet refers to behaviors and cultural expressions of Black people that sit outside of normative middle class respectable codes of conduct Ratchet can function both as a tool for critiquing bad Black behavior and as a tool for resisting the notion that there are such things as good and bad behavior in the first place This book takes seriously the way ratchet operates in the everyday lives of middle class and upwardly mobile Black Queer women in Washington DC who because of their sexuality are situated outside of the norms of Black respectability The book introduces the concept of ratchet boogie cultural politics which draws from a rich body of Black intellectual traditions which interrogate the debates concerning what is and is not acceptable Black middle class behavior Placing issues of non normative sexuality at the center of the conversation about notions of propriety within normative modes of Black middle class behavior this book discusses what it means for Black Queer women s bodies to be present within ratchet boogie cultural projects asking what Black Queer women s increasing visibility does for the everyday experiences of Black queer people more broadly

Black Queer Ethics, Family, and Philosophical Imagination Thelathia Nikki Young, 2016-06-06 This book acknowledges and highlights the moral excellence embedded in black queer practices of family Taking the lives narratives and creative explorations of black queer people seriously Thelathia Nikki Young brings readers on a journey of new queer ethical methods that include confrontation resistance and imagination Young asserts that family and its surrounding norms are both microcosms of and foundations for human relationships She discusses how black queer people are moral subjects whose ethical reflection lived experience and embodied action demonstrate valuable moral agency for those of us thinking about liberating and life giving ways to enact family Young posits that black queer people enact moral agency in ways that ought to be understood qua moral agency Refusing to recognize the examples from this and any other community Young argues denies us all the learning and moral growth that come from connecting with diverse human experiences This book investigates how acknowledging and critically engaging with the moral agency within marginalized subjectivities allow us to consider and bear witness to the moral potential in us all

Black. Queer. Southern. Women. E. Patrick Johnson, 2018-10-22 Drawn from the life narratives of more than seventy African American queer women who were born raised and continue to reside in the American South this book powerfully reveals the way these women experience and express racial sexual gender and class identities all linked by a place where such identities have generally placed them on the margins of society Using methods of oral history and performance ethnography E Patrick Johnson s work vividly enriches the historical record of racialized sexual minorities in the South and brings to light the realities of the region s thriving black lesbian communities At once transcendent and grounded in place and time these narratives raise important questions about queer identity formation community building and power relations as they are negotiated within the context of southern history Johnson uses individual stories to reveal the embedded political and cultural ideologies of the self but also of the listener and society as a whole These breathtakingly rich life histories show afresh how black female sexuality is and always has been an integral part of the patchwork quilt that is southern culture Feels Right Kemi Adeyemi,2022-08-29

In Feels Right Kemi Adeyemi presents an ethnography of how black queer women in Chicago use dance to assert their physical and affective rights to the city Adeyemi stages the book in queer dance parties in gentrifying neighborhoods where good feelings are good business But feeling good is elusive for black queer women whose nightlives are undercut by white people heterosexuality neoliberal capitalism burnout and other buzzkills Adeyemi documents how black queer women respond to these conditions how they destroy DJ booths argue with one another dance slowly and stop partying altogether Their practices complicate our expectations that life at night on the queer dance floor or among black queer community simply feels good Adeyemi's framework of feeling right instead offers a closer kinesthetic look at how black queer women adroitly manage feeling itself as a complex right they should be afforded in cities that violently structure their movements and energies What emerges in Feels Right is a sensorial portrait of the critical black queer geographies and collectivities that emerge in social dance settings and in the broader neoliberal city Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient No Tea, No Shade E. Patrick Johnson,2016-10-13

The follow up to the groundbreaking Black Queer Studies the edited collection No Tea No Shade brings together nineteen essays from the next generation of scholars activists and community leaders doing work on black gender and sexuality Building on the foundations laid by the earlier volume this collection's contributors speak new truths about the black queer experience while exemplifying the codification of black queer studies as a rigorous and important field of study Topics include raw sex pornography the carceral state gentrification gender nonconformity social media the relationship between black feminist studies and black trans studies the black queer experience throughout the black diaspora and queer music film dance and theater The contributors both disprove naysayers who believed black queer studies to be a passing trend and respond to critiques of the field's early U S bias Deferring to the past while pointing to the future No Tea No Shade pushes black queer studies in new and exciting directions Contributors Jafari S Allen Marlon M Bailey Zachary Shane Kalish Blair La Marr Jurelle Bruce Cathy J Cohen Jennifer DeClue Treva Ellison Lyndon K Gill Kai M Green Alexis Pauline Gumbs Kwame Holmes E Patrick Johnson Shaka McGlotten Amber Jamilla Musser Alison Reed Ramon H Rivera Servera Tanya Saunders C Riley Snorton Kaila Story Omise eke Natasha Tinsley Julia Roxanne Wallace Kortney Ziegler Black and Queer on Campus Michael P. Black Queer Studies E. Patrick Johnson,Mae G. Henderson,2005-11-01 A groundbreaking collection of sixteen essays that examines the productive intersection of the fields of black and queer studies Black Queer Freedom GerShun

Avilez,2020-11-09 Whether engaged in same sex desire or gender nonconformity black queer individuals live with being perceived as a threat while simultaneously being subjected to the threat of physical psychological and socioeconomical injury Attending to and challenging threats has become a defining element in queer black artists work throughout the black diaspora GerShun Avilez analyzes the work of diasporic artists who denied government protections have used art to create spaces for justice He first focuses on how the state seeks to inhibit the movement of black queer bodies through public spaces whether on the street or across borders From there he pivots to institutional spaces specifically prisons and hospitals and the ways such places seek to expose queer bodies in order to control them Throughout he reveals how desire and art open routes to black queer freedom when policy the law racism and homophobia threaten physical safety civil rights and social mobility Black and Queer on Campus Michael P. Jeffries,2025-02-04 Black and Queer on Campus is a ground breaking account of queer Black experiences on college campuses based on 65 interviews with Black LGBTQ students
