Butterfly Burning Yvonne Vera,2000-09-12 Butterfly Burning brings the brilliantly poetic voice of Zimbabwean writer Yvonne Vera to American readers for the first time Set in Makokoba a black township in the late 1940s the novel is an intensely bittersweet love story When Fumbatha a construction worker meets the much younger Phephelaphi he wants her like the land beneath his feet from which birth had severed him He in turn fills her with hope larger than memory But Phephelaphi is not satisfied with their one room love alone The qualities that drew Fumbatha to her her sense of independence and freedom end up separating them And the closely woven fabric of township life where everyone knows everyone else has a mesh too tight and too intricate to allow her to escape her circumstances on her own Vera exploits language to peel away the skin of public and private lives In Butterfly Burning she captures the ebullience and the bitterness of township life as well as the strength and courage of her unforgettable heroine
