The Irrational Consumer Enrico Trevisan, 2016-03-09 Companies of all kinds have fallen into some of the most fundamental of traps when it comes to consumer marketing in assuming that the motivation that drives their customers is entirely rational Enrico Trevisan s The Irrational Consumer builds on the ground breaking works on behavioural economics of authors such as Daniel Kahneman and Richard Thaler in order to explain the fundamental drivers of customer decisions and how to incorporate these into your business strategy Learn how consumers respond to different offer architectures and discounts why they sometimes struggle to see the wood for the trees in a world of ever increasing options what are the rules of thumb they develop for making sense of value Behavioural economics offers organizations perspectives for engaging with customers whose views on what to buy are strongly driven by contextual factors such as the framework and the dynamics of choices

Enrico Trevisan s The Irrational Consumer is your must have primer to this world

With Power Comes Responsibility Maeve McKeown, 2024-02-08 What is structural injustice and who ultimately bears responsibility for it In answering these questions Maeve McKeown goes beyond the widely accepted narrative of unintended consequences and blameless participation to explain how power and responsibility truly function in today s world Drawing on case studies from sweatshops to climate change McKeown identifies three types of structural injustice the pure and unintended accumulation of disparate activities the avoidable injustice that could be ameliorated by the powerful but nevertheless continues the deliberate perpetuation of structural processes that benefit powerful political and economic agents In each of these the role of power is different which changes the allocation of responsibility From this understanding we can shape a deeper more sophisticated idea of how structural injustice operates and what we as individuals can do about it What is the political responsibility of ordinary individuals How can ordinary individuals with very little power pressure morally responsible powerful agents to address structural injustice Do we have the same responsibility for historical injustice as we do for that which we see in today s world This is fundamental reassessment of the relationship between power ordinary people and responsibility for structural injustice
