TLLS, the Times Literary Supplement, 1980 Beyond Nihilism Susan Ray, 2003 The ideas underlying Benn's Ausdruckswelt not only anticipate and parallel many of the assumptions now current in recent trends in literary criticism they also disclose their ultimate limitations Benn's poetics were founded on the intellectual crises of the early years of the twentieth century Following Nietzschean leads Benn sought to achieve in his person and his work a return to a primitive archetypal mode of perception which he felt would restore a purer more natural mentality to modern man whom he portrayed as being far ahead of his syntax By focusing on Benn's early Expressionist prose and what this study calls his fictive self the author traces the relationship between Benn's Weltanschauung and later critical theory Building upon the latest scholarship she analyses Benn's poetics as precursor of certain postmodernist ideas concerning language meaning and polysemy aesthetics personal identity authorial intention versus reader reception intertextuality and the role of art in society By paying specific attention to the concept of the autonomous self and its relation to language this study demonstrates that Gottfried Benn's aesthetic theories do not represent the end of German Expressionism but rather the beginning of the present post modernist period Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1980 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Goethe-Bibliographie 1950-1990: 2.7.
