McClatchy, 2008-10-01 div College years when ideas collide literature intrigues and inspires lasting passions are first fired can stamp a young writer for life This extraordinary book contains the work of dozens of writers whose experiences at Yale over the past three centuries exerted a powerful force on their writing lives Formed and nurtured by the unique intellectual community of the university writers as diverse as Noah Webster and Gloria Naylor emerged from Yale to make their own fresh contributions to our nation's remarkable literary heritage From the galaxy of authors Yale has produced J D McClatchy selects a rich and varied sample He includes sermons essays poems short stories and excerpts from novels The book opens with a section devoted to the work of four great teachers of writing at Yale in recent decades John Hersey Robert Penn Warren John Hollander and Robert Stone The middle and most generous section of the volume focuses on writers who have been working since the end of the Second World War Each of these selections casts a strong light on its author and his or her work In the final section McClatchy draws on the work of earlier literary figures from James Fenimore Cooper to Thornton Wilder in many cases retrieving little known material A stroll through the pages of this bountiful anthology dazzling in the diversity of its offerings will appeal to any reader Each of the authors was challenged and inspired by Yale In this volume each in turn challenges and inspires us Among the authors and poets in this volume Jonathan Edwards Sinclair Lewis Cole Porter Robert Penn Warren Brendan Gill Robert K Massie William F Buckley Jr Calvin Trillin Paul Monette Garry B Trudeau Claire Messud Chang rae Lee DIV Falling from Silence David R. Slavitt, 2001-02-01 Falling from Silence is the seventy third book by David Slavitt the prolific poet novelist translator and editor His amazing rate of production has only amplified and refined the power of his art This is the work of an accomplished veteran a craftsman who laments the limitations of what his hard earned talent can do in the face of age and loss He turns to religion reads the classics and in moments of cheer that may not be mere mania he horses around and fools with the words that have been his toys but nothing helps or more accurately nothing helps enough It is nevertheless true that as he says in Pen The letters that danced in the light like gnats will suddenly light on some twig of a notion a held breath can make tremble in an unpredictable motion like this pen's that no one would think could bear the fruit of truth Ranging in tone from devilish and droll to dignified and desolate the poems here examine death and aging and bespeak the reassuring connection between the generations In Angel of Death the speaker remarkably balances grief and joy in describing the birth of his grandson who bears the name of the poet's father I hold him in my arms the precious breathing weight and admire the tiny hands that will bear the weight one day of my coffin's corner That a Sam once more will carry me is a comfort Slavitt's wry wit profound humanity and agile intellect illuminate every page of Falling from Silence In contrast to its title it is indeed a resounding poetic triumph The Whispering Gallery William Logan, 2005-09-27 The poems here delve into what William Logan calls the ill lit kingdom of the past The book is haunted by the dead but equally penitent toward the rich insinuations of the living the lost floral paradise of the Florida outlands the steamy Gatsby summers of a Long Island childhood the frozen stones of a colonial burying ground This new collection of seventy two poems will allow readers to delight in the richness of Logan s language and the boldness of his vision     Plundered Hearts J. D. McClatchy,2016-02-02 A definitive selection of the elegant work by a poet at the forefront of American poetry for more than three decades With his first several books J D McClatchy established himself as a poet of urbanity intellect and prismatic emotion in the tradition of James Merrill W H Auden and Elizabeth Bishop one who balances an exploration of the underworld of desire with a mastery of poetic form and whose artistry reveals the riches and ruins of our plundered hearts Now opening with exquisite new poems including the stunning My Hand Collection a catalogue of art objects that steals up on the complexity of human touch and a witty and profound poem entitled My Robotic Prostatectomy this selection is a glorious full tour of McClatchy s career It includes excerpts from the powerful book length sequence Ten Commandments 1998 and his more recent works Hazmat 2002 and Mercury Dressing 2009 books that explored the body s melodrama as well as the heart s treacheries grievances and boundless capacities All of his poems present a sumptuous weave of impassioned thought and clear sighted feeling He has been rightly hailed as a poet of ferocious alertness one who elicits says The New Leader the kind of wonder and joy we experience when the curtain comes down on a dazzling performance     Garnet Poems Dennis Barone,2013-08-13 Connecticut may be a small state but it is large indeed in its contribution to the nation s literature Garnet Poems features forty two poets whose work has a strong connection to Connecticut The first major anthology of Connecticut poetry to appear since the mid nineteenth century it includes the work of such notable poets as Wallace Stevens Lydia Sigourney Mark Van Doren Richard Wilbur Susan Howe and Elizabeth Alexander Distinguished writer scholar Dennis Barone has supplemented the poems with an editor s preface notes that illuminate the poet s or poem s relation to the state and informative biographies The book also features a foreword by Dick Allen the current Connecticut state poet laureate     Mercury Dressing J. D. McClatchy,2011-05-17 This beautiful collection from J D McClatchy holds up a mirror to the soul considering heroic and human figures in poems that balance mandarin wit with enormous learning a fully twenty first century sensibility and a deft use of the demotic Bookpage     The Writers Directory ,2013     At the Palace of Jove Karl Kirchwey,2002 An anthology of poems reflects on the impact of the past on the present in works that combine elements of social satire and personal observation with emotional power     The Publishers Weekly ,2001     Made Flesh Craig Arnold,2008 Few could have predicted the delayed depth charge of this explosive second book motored by vividly earthly language and disguised philosophical sophistication Publishers Weekly starred review Throughout Made Flesh one of the most powerful poetry books this year Arnold gets at both the contradictions and timelessness of love Time Out New York The readers delighted with Arnold s first book Shells will be differently enchanted with these They contain a wealth of contemplation as well as observation and experience Their unpunctuated free style carries the reader into the poems piling up events and details in a breathless rush The poems of

Made Flesh are unforgettable and it is tragic that readers will have no new books from Craig Arnold
Magill Book Reviews A girl wakes up to find out just how completely her lover has possessed her A couple realizes they've been trapped inside an ancient myth A traveler glances out through a train window and catches the dim reflection of another world This is the world of Made Flesh the long awaited second book by Craig Arnold a finalist for the Utah Book Award and the High Plains book award Made Flesh delineates a new mythology of what it means to be in the body Marrying narrative precision to lyric ecstasy the archaic to the avant garde these poems celebrate the fragility of our very selves and the joy of self forgetting the acts of surrender that love asks of us Fierce exuberant and erotic they invite the reader to share a rare and startling vision how if we would only permit ourselves to be drawn out of our mental privacies out to the very surface of our skin we might admit the beauty of being for a moment in the world and with each other Craig Arnold is the author of Shells a Yale Series of Younger Poets selection chosen by W S Merwin He taught at the University of Wyoming in Laramie In late April 2009 Craig Arnold went missing on the Japanese island of Kuchinoerabu jima where he was working on a book about volcanoes as part of a Creative Artists Exchange Fellowship from the Japan United States Friendship Commission He was forty one years old
