British And American Aces Of World War I The Pictorial Record:

British and American Aces of World War I Norman Franks, 2005 A companion volume to German Aces of World War I The Pictorial Record Norman Franks Greg VanWyngarden Schiffer 2004 this new book covers the British and Commonwealth fighter aces of the Great War One chapter covers the aces with ten or more victories and an additional chapter lists the fighter aces with nine down to five victories giving their squadrons where they hailed from and in many cases their subsequent fate For the American aces the author lists every fighter ace of the period from Rickenbacker's twenty six down to those with five victories American Aces of World War 1 Norman Franks, 2001-09-25 American fliers arriving in Europe from September 1917 brought with them no aircraft Instead US units had to obtain machines mainly from the British and French From early 1918 American pilots were issued with SPAD fighters and they never looked back As this volume details the first American trained pilot to become an ace was Lt Douglas Campbell who shot down five German aircraft by the end of May 1918 He was a member of the celebrated 94th Hat in the Ring Aero Squadron which created the bulk of American aces in World War I British and Commonwealth Aces of World War II Norman Franks, 2006 Having photographically covered the British Aces of World War I in his book British and American Aces of World War I The Pictorial Record it followed that the RAF and Commonwealth aces of World War II should also be depicted in a single volume This book therefore shows all RAF Commonwealth and other country tm s aces who flew with the RAF between 1939 1945 Featured here in most cases as portraits are those fighter pilots who achieved ten or more victories This is the first time that the faces of these men have been featured in one book paying tribute to them and all RAF fighter pilots of the Second World War Over the Front ,2006 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 The Aviator Steven T. Tom, 2025-11-28 Jim McConnell served both as an ambulance driver and as pilot in France In both cases long before US entry into the war

The Stand Stephen Skinner, 2024-11-28 A revised and expanded new edition of this classic biography of a legendary American fighter pilot Frank Luke was the first American airman to be awarded the Medal of Honor He was the second highest scoring American fighter ace of the First World War just behind Eddie Rickenbacker Unlike the jovial Rickenbacker Luke is an enigma On the basis of his unmatched rate of aerial victories including many heavily defended balloons Luke was likely one of the bravest and most gifted fighter pilots of the war On the other hand the young Arizonan was almost universally disliked and doubted by his peers Frank Luke was shot down and killed on September 29 1918 he was 21 years old and had been in combat for just over a month The details of this exceptional pilot's death were murky heavily shrouded by rumor and mythos Author Stephen Skinner changed that Skinner immersed himself in the life and death of Frank Luke Fifteen years of research including archeological digs dozens of interviews nine trips to France and the review of 2 000 pages of unpublished archival material produced the definitive work on a truly legendary figure in US military history This new edition combines new content and revisions with a refreshed presentation and format First to Fly Charles Bracelen

Flood,2015-06-02 The compelling story of the squadron of adventurous young American pilots who were among the first to engage in air combat Tampa Bay Times In First to Fly lauded historian Charles Bracelen Flood draws on rarely seen primary sources to tell the story of the daredevil Americans of the Lafayette Escadrille who flew in French planes wore French uniforms and showed the world an American brand of heroism before the United States entered the Great War As citizens of a neutral nation from 1914 to early 1917 Americans were prohibited from serving in a foreign army but many brave young souls soon made their way into European battle zones It was partly from the ranks of the French Foreign Legion and with the sponsorship of an expat American surgeon and a Vanderbilt that the Lafayette Escadrille was formed in 1916 as the first and only all American squadron in the French Air Service Flying rudimentary planes against one in three odds of being killed these fearless young men gathered reconnaissance and shot down enemy aircraft participated in the Battle of Verdun and faced off with the Red Baron dueling across the war torn skies like modern knights on horseback First to Fly shows us that there was something noble and honorable about the Escadrille men who did not turn against their own country but put their lives up to fight for a cause not because they had to but because it was the right thing to do The Wall Street Journal The Official Pictorial History of the AAF United States.
