British History For As Level 18671918:

A/AS Level History for AQA Challenge and Transformation: Britain, c1851-1964 Student Book Thomas Dixon, Rosemarie Little, Alan Gillingham, 2016-06-30 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the AQA 2015 A AS Level History Written for the AQA A AS Level History specifications for first teaching from 2015 this print Student Book covers the Challenge and Transformation Britain c1851 1964 Breadth component Completely matched to the new AQA specification this full colour Student Book provides valuable background information to contextualise the period of study Supporting students in developing their critical thinking research and written communication skills it also encourages them to make links between different time periods topics and historical themes Green Australia Steve Lancaster, 2012 Green Australia A snapshot examines the ways in which Australians are attempting to reduce their ecological footprint both at home and at work In 2009 the CO2 Energy Emissions Index found that Australia had overtaken the USA to become the largest per capita emitter of greenhouse gases in the world a legacy of dependence on coal fired power stations the widespread adoption of conventional farming techniques heavy reliance on vehicles powered by fossil fuel dirty industrial practices and a growing mountain of waste Yet in recent years there has been a growing awareness that climate change is beginning to bite the recent drought and devastating floods suggesting that more extreme weather patterns are likely unless significant steps are taken to combat global warming Using case studies and up to date research this book demonstrates that although much more needs to be done if Australia is to secure a carbon neutral future some Green shoots are beginning to emerge History Today, 2001 A/AS Level History for AQA Tsarist and Communist Russia, 1855-1964 Student Book Hannah Dalton, 2015-09-17 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the AQA 2015 A AS Level History Written for the AQA A AS Level History specifications for first teaching from 2015 this print Student Book covers the Tsarist and Communist Russia 1855 1964 Breadth component Completely matched to the new AQA specification this full colour Student Book provides valuable background information to contextualise the period of study Supporting students in developing their critical thinking research and written communication skills it also encourages them to make links between different time periods topics and historical themes British History for AS Level, 1867-1918 Derek Peaple, 2004-08-01 Meeting your AS A Level History needs Britain 1815-1918 Derrick Murphy, 1998 A comprehensive study of 19th century British history which adopts the approach that will be required by the post 1998 A Level syllabuses It is presented in a clear and easy to follow format and includes keypoints that reinforce the narrative Study skills and worked questions for the major examination boards are also included Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate. Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality. In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies.

Gender in Scottish History Since 1700 Lynn Abrams, 2006-01-25 Scottish history is undergoing a renaissance. Everyone agrees that an understanding of our nation's history is integral to our experience of its present and the shaping of the future. But the story of Scotland's past is being told with little reference to gendered identities. Not only are women largely missing from these grand narratives but men's experience has tended to be sublimated in intellectual political and economic agendas. Neither femininities nor masculinities have been given much of a place in Scotland's past or in the process of nation making. Gender in Scottish History offers a new perspective on Scotland's past since around 1700 viewing some of the main themes with a gendered perspective. It starts from the assumption that gender is integral to our understanding of the ways in which societies in the past were organised and that national histories have a tendency to be gender blind. Each chapter engages with one key theme from Scottish historiography asking what happens when women are added to the story and how the story changes when the meanings of gendered understandings and assumptions are probed. Addressing politics culture religion science education work the family and identity Gender in Scottish History proposes an alternative reading of the Scottish past which is both inclusive and recognisable.

The Habsburg Monarchy 1815-1918 Steven Beller, 2018-05-10 This clear and compelling account of the Habsburg Monarchy in its last century explains why a century after its disappearance it has never been more relevant. With extensive discussion of recent historiographic controversies about the Monarchy's character and viability Steven Beller presents a detailed account of the main strands of the Monarchy's political history and how its economic social and cultural development interacted with this main narrative. While recognizing the importance of these larger trends readers will learn how the historical accident of personality and the complexities of high politics and diplomacy still had a central impact on the Monarchy's fate. Although some would see the Monarchy as an atavistic irrelevance in the modern age its multicultural multinational experience and inclusive logic was in many ways more relevant to our modernity than the nationalism that did so much to bring about its demise.

Subjects, Citizens, and Others Benno Gammerl, 2017-11-01 Bosnian Muslims East African Masai Czech speaking Austrians North American indigenous peoples and Jewish immigrants from across Europe the nineteenth century British and Habsburg Empires were characterized by incredible cultural and racial ethnic diversity. Notwithstanding their many differences both empires faced similar administrative questions as a result. Who was excluded or admitted? What advantages were granted to which groups? And how could diversity be reconciled with demands for national autonomy and democratic participation? In this pioneering study Benno Gammerl compares Habsburg and British approaches to governing their diverse populations analyzing imperial formations to reveal the legal and political conditions that fostered heterogeneity
