British Malaya And Singapore During The Japanese Occupation:

The Japanese Occupation of Malaya Paul H. Kratoska, 1997-01-01 Japan attacked British ruled Malaya on 8 December 1941 as part of a wave of military actions that toppled the British Dutch and American colonial regimes in Southeast Asia. Within seventy days the conquest of Malaya was complete and British forces in Singapore surrendered on 15 February 1942. The three and a half years of Japanese rule are generally considered to mark a profound transition in the history of the Malay peninsula but little is known about this period. This book uses the limited administrative papers that survived in Malaya oral sources and accounts written by Japanese officers involved in the Malayan campaign to flesh out the story. War and Memory in Malaysia and Singapore Patricia Pui Huen Lim, Diana Wong, 2000 This volume consists of selected papers presented at a workshop on War and Memory in Malaysia and Singapore to commemorate the 50th anniversary of World War II plus two additional papers. The papers reveal the importance of oral history where documentary records are lacking.

New Perspectives on the Japanese Occupation in Malaya and Singapore, 1941-1945 Yōji Akashi, Mako Yoshimura, 2008-12-01 Information on the Japanese Occupation of Malaya and Singapore is sparse and Japanese language materials are particularly difficult to find because the Japanese military systematically destroyed war related documents when the war ended. The contributors to this volume participated in a Forum that spent four years locating surviving materials relating to the Occupation of Malaya. The group had three objectives: to collect primary sources; to interview Japanese military and civilian officials who took part in the military administration; and people in Malaysia and Singapore who experienced the period and to publish the results of the studies. Based on interviews with Japanese Malaysians and Singaporeans who lived through the war years and materials gathered from archives and libraries in Britain, Malaysia, Singapore, USA, Australia and India, the Forum has produced a number of Japanese language publications. This book makes available some of their research findings in English. Topics covered include the Watanabe Military Administration, Japanese research activities in Malaya, Japan's Economic Policies, Malayan Communist Party Leaders and the Anti-Japanese Resistance, the Massacre of Chinese in Singapore, Railway Transportation during the Japanese Occupation Period, The Singapore Internment Camp for Allied Civilian Women and the Japanese Surrender. This volume is a revised version of Akashi Yoji ed. Nippon Senryōka no Eiryō Maraya Shingaporu Tokyo: Iwanami Shoten Publishers Co. 2001. Southeast Asian Minorities in the Wartime Japanese Empire Paul H. Kratoska, 2013-05-13 The Japanese invasion and occupation of Southeast Asia provided opportunities for the peoples of the region to pursue a wide range of agendas that had little to do with the larger issues which drove the conflict between Japan and the allies. This book explores how the occupation affected various minority groups in the region. It shows, for example, how in some areas of Burma the withdrawal of established authority led to widespread communal violence; how the Indian and Chinese populations of Malaya and Thailand had extensive and often unpleasant interactions with the Japanese; and how in Java the Chinese population fared much better. Japan's Colonial

Moment in Southeast Asia 1942-1945 Nakano Satoshi, 2018-10-03 The first ever attempt to paint a full scale portrait of the Japanese Occupation of Southeast Asia during the Asia Pacific War 1942-5 This book draws on the huge body of available narrative military documents bureaucratic records and personal accounts of combatants and civilians including diaries memoirs and collected correspondence most of which have previously been either unknown or unavailable to non Japanese readers It examines how the Japanese imperial adventure in Southeast Asia sped up the collapse of the Japanese Empire as a whole not only through its ultimate military defeat in the region but also due to its failure as an occupier from the very beginning Nakano explains the significance of the Japanese Occupation of Southeast Asia as a learning experience for the occupiers whether soldiers on the frontlines or civilians on the home front He uses a synthesis overlay and juxtaposition of a selection of these narratives to reassemble the narrative as a whole This brings into focus the outlook of those Japanese who set out for Southeast Asia with the purpose to urge the region's occupied people to collaborate with Japan to transform the region into an integral part of the Greater East Asia Co Prosperity Sphere Many would eventually discover that what required change was Japan and its whole approach to colonial rule as was realized so quickly in the postwar era The original Japanese version was published as Tonan Ajia senryo to Nihonjin Teikoku Nihon no kaitai The occupation of Southeast Asia and the Japanese The dismantling of the Japanese Empire Tokyo Iwanami Shoten 2012 ISBN 430922542X Culture and Customs of
