

How far did living standards change in Britain 1918-79?

1918-39

- Two-year post-war boom, ending in 1920
- Government spending increased at the end of the 1930s to prepare the country for war, stimulating economic recovery
- Short-lived boom failed to generate levels of high employment needed to absorb the large numbers of men demobilising from the Army
- Caused an economic crisis and decline in living standards, exacerbated by the Great Depression of the 1930s
- Regional differences

Real income and the consumer boom

- Prices fell faster than wages meaning the cost of living fell by 1/3 in 1920-38
- Increased use of contraception meant family sizes decreased e.g. in 1920, 2.19 children vs 4.6 in 1880
- Household electrical appliances could be bought on credit, common for the middle-class in the 1930s
- Electricity supplied to more homes, particularly middle-class
- 1930 200,000 vacuum cleaners sold, doubled to 400,000 in 1938
- 300% increase in the sales of electric cookers from 1930-35
- After short post-war consumer boom, there was a severe recession in 1921
- 1 million unemployed at the end of 1920, and never fell below 1 million in the 1930s
- Until 1934, many families were on less than £5 per week

Health and diet

- War killed 700,000 and wounded 1.6 million men
- 1914 Education Act provided school meals
- Wider variety of foodstuffs such as fruit imported, improving diets
- Prices of basic food stuff fell

Regional variations

- Older houses could be bought for £125 in less affluent areas
- Unemployment peaked at 3 million and was long-term -
- 62% of shipbuilders were unemployed in 1932 vs 20% in car manufacturing
- Jarrow march drew sympathy but no action
- Car ownership at 20% in the south but 12% in the north

1939-51

Total War

- During WW2, the government intervened directly in the supply of food, clothing and other essential items
- People had better employment prospects and pay
 - o E.g. jobs created for civilian munitions offered good pay and working conditions after negotiations with TUs
 - o Average pay increased during the war
 - o 7 million women in war effort
- Living standards pressurised through rationing
 - o Vast majority of the population had the same access to food and resources
 - o People encouraged to grow fruit and vegetables and cook nutritiously
 - o Restaurants became subject to rationing controls in 1942, preventing resentment from the working-class who saw wealthier Britons avoiding the rationing restrictions
 - o Evident that people were healthier by the end of the war as food was supplemented by vitamins and minerals - infant mortality fell, possibly accounting for the post-war baby boom
- Bombing of British cities destroyed many homes
 - o Offered the opportunity to rebuild modern homes with bathrooms, kitchens and gardens
 - o 40,000 deaths and the destruction of 2 million homes
 - o Rural areas were not directly affected
- Immediate post-war years saw austerity
