British Journal 18th Century Studies Volume 27 Parts 1 and 2 Bsecs, British Journal 18th Century Studies Bsecs,2004-11-30 A Certain Share of Low Cunning David J. Cox,2010-02-01 This book provides an account and analysis of the history of the Bow Street Runners precursors of today s police force Through a detailed analysis of a wide range of both qualitative and quantitative research data this book provides a fresh insight into their history arguing that the use of Bow Street personnel in provincially instigated cases was much more common than has been assumed by many historians It also demonstrates that the range of activities carried out by Bow Street personnel whilst employed on such cases was far more complex than can be gleaned from the majority of books and articles concerning early nineteenth century provincial policing which often do little more than touch on the role of Bow Street By describing the various roles and activities of the Bow Street Principal Officers with specific regard to cases originating in the provinces it also places them firmly within the wider contexts of provincial law enforcement and policing history The book investigates the types of case in which the Runners were involved who employed them and why how they operated including their interaction with local law enforcement bodies and how they were perceived by those who utilized their services It also discusses the legacy of the Principal Officers with regard to subsequent developments within policing Bow Street Police Office and its personnel have long been regarded by many historians as little more than a discrete and often inconsequential footnote to the history of policing leading to a partial and incomplete understanding of their work This viewpoint is challenged in this book which argues that in several ways the utilization of Principal Officers in provincially instigated cases paved the way for important subsequent developments in policing especially with regard to detective practices It is also the first work to provide a clear distinction between the Principal Officers and their less senior colleagues History of Technology Volume 8 Norman Smith,2016-09-30 The technical problems confronting different societies and periods and the measures taken to solve them form the concern of this annual collection of essays Volumes contain technical articles ranging widely in subject time and region as well as general papers on the history of technology In addition to dealing with the history of technical discovery and change History of Technology also explores the relations of technology to other aspects of life social cultural and economic and shows how technological development has shaped and been shaped by the society in which it occurred The Imposteress Rabbit Breeder Karen Harvey,2020-01-23 In October 1726 newspapers began reporting a remarkable event In the town of Godalming in Surrey a woman called Mary Toft had started to give birth to rabbits Several leading doctors some sent directly by King George I travelled to examine the woman and she was moved to London to be closer to them By December she had been accused of fraud and taken into custody Mary Toft s unusual deliveries caused a media sensation Her rabbit births were a test case for doctors trying to further their knowledge about the processes of reproduction and pregnancy The rabbit births prompted not just public curiosity and scientific investigation but also a vicious backlash Based on extensive new archival research this book is the first in depth re telling of this extraordinary story Karen Harvey situates the rabbit births within the troubled community of Godalming and the women who remained close to Mary Toft as the case unfolded exploring the motivations of the medics who examined her considering why the case attracted the attention of the King and powerful men in government and following the case through the criminal justice system The case of Mary Toft exposes huge social and cultural changes in English history Against the backdrop of an incendiary political culture it was a time when traditional social hierarchies were shaken relationships between men and women were redrawn print culture acquired a new vibrancy and irreverence and knowledge of the body was remade But Mary Toft s story is not just a story about the past In reconstructing Mary s physical social and mental world The Imposteress Rabbit Breeder allows us to reflect critically on our own ideas about pregnancy reproduction and the body through the lens of the past We shall not be moved Brian

Marren,2016-05-01 The city of Liverpool had frequently been prone to industrial unrest for most of its recent history but it was the dawn of Thatcher and the sanctioning of neoliberal economic strategies which made Liverpool a nucleus of resistance against the encroaching tide of right wing politics and sweeping de industrialisation This critique explores six case studies which will illustrate how elements of a highly politicised local working class fought against the rapid rise in forced redundancies and industrial closures Some of their responses included strikes factory occupations the organisation and politicisation of the unemployed consent to radical left wing municipal politics as well as tacit endorsement a period of violent civil unrest This critique concludes that in the range intensity and use of innovative tactics deployed during these conflicts Liverpool was distinctive Prostitution and Eighteenth-Century Culture Ann Lewis,Markman

Ellis,2015-10-06 The eighteenth century saw profound changes in the way prostitution was represented in literary and visual culture This collection of essays focuses on the variety of ways that the sex trade was represented in popular culture of the time across different art forms and highlighting contradictory interpretations The Political Economy of the Interior Gold Coast

Jarvis L. Hargrove,2015-12-09 This book analyzes the Gold Coast and the Asante kingdom in the years following the abolition of the transatlantic slave trade and prior to the start of colonial rule The Asante state one of the largest in the Gold Coast and West Africa after the eighteenth century is the central focus of this work Studying their transition from a large scale supplier of captives to the transatlantic slave trade to traders in legitimate goods is a critical component that should be analyzed across West Africa This work highlights the political and economic relationships between the interior Asante state with surrounding African groups and Europeans chiefly British traders who entered the region in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Germain Boffrand Caroline van Eck,2017-10-03 This title was first published in 2003 Germain

Boffrand was one of the great French architects of the early eighteenth century His work encompassed not only the design of town and country houses for the wealthy but also mines bridges and hospitals His Livre d Architecture is one of the most original books on architecture ever written in France Taking the Art of Poetry by the Latin poet Horace as its starting point it
