

Dugger

The Dugger name is a prominent one in Baker County. Jack Dugger was a well known and much loved farmer of cotton and corn. In his later years he ran a general store. He loved children and was said to be very patient and kind. Every evening when he walked home from the store, the children would sing out "Granpa Jack, whatcha got in that sack?" He brought them candy most days. He was said to have a beard which grew all the way to his lap, which he allowed the children to brush. His wife, Sarah, was said to be more stern and formal always neatly dressed and very proper.
