Baudrillard Live Selected Interviews:

Baudrillard Live Mike Gane, 2002-11-01 Jean Baudrillard arouses strong opinions In this collection of his most important interviews the reader gains a unique and accessible overview of Baudrillard's key ideas The collection includes many interviews that appear in English for the first time as well as a fascinating interview and encounter between the editor and Baudrillard in Paris

Baudrillard's Challenge Victoria Grace, 2002-01-04 This controversial book is the first systematic feminist reading of the work of Jean Baudrillard one of the most pivotal figures in contemporary cultural theory and is essential reading for students of feminist theory sociology and cultural theory Drawing on the full range of Baudrillard's writings the author engages in a debate with the work of Luce Irigaray Judith Butler and Rosi Braidotti on identity power and desire the feminist concern with difference as an emancipatory construct writings on transgenderism and the performance of gender feminist concerns about the objectification of women Through this critical engagement Grace reveals some of the limitations of some contemporary feminist theorising around gender and identity patriarchy and power and in so doing offers a way forward for contemporary feminist thought

First Pages Giancarlo Maiorino, 2010-11 Titology a term first coined in 1977 by literary critic Harry Levin is the field of literary studies that focuses on the significance of a title in establishing the thematic developments of the pages that follow While the term has been used in the literary community for thirty years this book presents for the first time a thoroughly developed theoretical discussion on the significance of the title as a foundation for scholarly criticism Though Maiorino acknowledges that many titles are superficial and indexical there exists a separate and more complex class of titles that do much more than simply decorate a book's spine To prove this argument Maiorino analyzes a wide range of examples from the modern era through high modernism to postmodernism with writings spanning the globe from Spain and France to Germany and America By examining works such as Essais The Waste Land Ulysses and Don Quixote First Pages proves the power of the title to connect the reader to the thematic cultural and literary context of the writing as a whole Much like a façade to a building the title page serves as the frontispiece of literature a sign that offers perspective and demands interpretation

Courting Dissolution Michael Lent, 2016-12-15 Michael Lent asks what role art has in colonisation and subsequent dissolution He proposes a practice informed by the fatal strategies and raw phenomenology of Jean Baudrillard as a challenge to a system of disappearance Focusing on the otherness of space to prevent its ultimate dissolution Lent promotes a spatial practice of radical alterity Examining ideas of disappearance put forth by Baudrillard and Paul Virilio he utilises art as a means for investigating loss of potentiality and experience through the representation of space shifting their ideas originally ascribed to objects into a new emphasis This book ultimately attempts to break a cyclical system that causes everything to disappear into representation and equivalency

Consuming Schools Trevor Norris, 2011-01-01 The increasing prevalence of consumerism in contemporary society often equates happiness with the acquisition of material objects Consuming Schools describes the impact of consumerism on politics and education and charts the increasing presence of commercialism in the educational sphere through an examination of issues such as school business partnerships advertising in schools and corporate sponsored curriculum First linking the origins of consumerism to important political and philosophical thinkers Trevor Norris goes on to closely examine the distinction between the public and the private sphere through the lens of twentieth century intellectuals Hannah Arendt and Jean Baudrillard Through Arendt s account of the human activities of labour work and action and the ensuing eclipse of the public realm and Baudrillard s consideration of the visual character of consumerism Norris examines how school commercialism has been critically engaged by in class activities such as media literacy programs and educational policies regulating school business partnerships

Culture and Identity Ross Abbinnett,2003-07-01 Ross Abbinnett brings a keen and subtle philosophical mind to bear on themes and debates that have become commonplace in sociology This is a sinuously written book which casts new light on pressing contemporary issues It is required reading for everyone who wants to think seriously and with an open mind about the terrain of the present Keith Tester Professor of Sociology University of Portsmouth This incisive and timely book provides a concise and reliable guide to the debate on modernity and postmodernity In particular the work of Lyotard Beck Bauman Baudrillard Giddens Jameson and Derrida is critically reviewed Culture and Identity provides a thorough and accessible discussion of the main themes in the modernity postmodernity debate a shrewd and penetrating account of how these themes address everyday life a novel account of how technology is altering our perceptions of the human and a balanced account of the hope for radical politics and radical critique to correct the excesses of capitalism What emerges most forcefully from the book is the error of dismissing postmodernism as a self indulgent and ultimately dangerous piece of ideology Abbinnett provides a pertinent reminder of the continuing importance of the themes and challenges raised in the postmodern moment

French Social Theory Mike Gane,2003-02-07 No national tradition of social theory has been more seductive to Anglo American readers than the French There has been a long standing fascination with French ideas and debates This extraordinarily accomplished book written by one of Britain s leading commentators on social theory provides a peerless account of the French tradition The book provides a systematic account of French social theory from the aftermath of the French Revolution St Simon Bazard and Comte to the contemporary scene dominated by Kristeva Deleuze Bourdieu and Baudrillard divides French social theory into three logically coherent cycles 1800 80 positivist 1880 1940 anthropological 1940 2000 Marxist provides a detailed guide to the three phases of postwar French social theory existential structural and post structural and situates the discussions of individuals and schools in the relevant social and political contexts The book is a masterpiece of erudition and scholarship but is written throughout in an engaging and informative style It will be required reading for anyone interested in social theory and sociology

Historicizing Theory Peter C. Herman,2012-02-01 Historicizing Theory provides the first serious examination of contemporary theory in relation to the various twentieth century historical and political contexts out of which it emerged Theory a broad category that is often used to encompass theoretical approaches as varied as deconstruction New Historicism and postcolonialism has often been derided as a mere relic of the 1960s In order to move beyond such a simplistic assessment the essays in this volume examine such important figures as Harold Bloom Paul de Man Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Stephen Greenblatt and Edward Said situating their work in a variety of contexts inside and outside of the 1960s including World War II the Holocaust the Algerian civil war and the canon wars of the 1980s In bringing us face to face with the history of theory Historicizing Theory recuperates history for theory and asks us to confront some of the central issues and problems in literary studies today

Consumer Society and the Post-modern City David B Clarke, 2004-03 Working through the often controversial ideas of the consumer society s most influential theorists Jean Baudrillard and Zygmunt Bauman this book assesses the ways in which consumerism is reshaping the nature and meaning of the city

The Orthodox Icon and Postmodern Art C.A. Tsakiridou, 2024-08-29 This study examines the theories of postmodern visuality and representation and identifies concepts that resonate with Orthodox theology and iconography C A Tsakiridou frees the Orthodox icon from iconological precepts that limit its aesthetic and expressive range The book s key argument is that poststructuralist thought is not alien to Orthodox theology and iconography Dissonance liminality and ambiguity are essential for conveying the paradoxes of Christian faith and recognizing the hagiopneumatic vitality and openness of the Orthodox tradition Perichoresis or coinherence a concept in patristic theology that defines the relationship between the three persons of the Holy Trinity and the two natures of Christ acquires a feminine dimension in the person of the Theotokos Like the ascetical concept of nepsis it has aesthetic implications Intermedial qualities present in iconography photography and cinema help explain how icons become hosts to transcendent realities and how their experience in Orthodox liturgy and devotion has anticipated and resolved the postmodern disorientation of visuality and representation The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history postmodernism philosophy theology religion and gender studies
