

Being a Good Sport

Learning to cope with feelings of sadness or anger after losing, not getting their way, or not being chosen first requires children to act in direct contrast with how they're feeling. We teach learners to use perspective taking, calming strategies, and positive-self talk skills to work through managing these difficult feelings.

We act like a good sport
so others will want to play with us again.

Say "I didn't win today
but I can always try again."
