Handbook of Reading Research, Volume V Elizabeth Birr Moje, Peter P. Afflerbach, Patricia Enciso, Nonie K. Lesaux, 2020-06-02 In a time of pressures, challenges, and threats to public education, teacher preparation, and funding for educational research, the fifth volume of the Handbook of Reading Research takes a hard look at why we undertake reading research, how school structures, contexts, and policies shape students' learning, and most importantly, how we can realize greater impact from the research conducted. A comprehensive volume with a gaps and game changers frame, this handbook not only synthesizes current reading research literature but also informs promising directions for research, pushing readers to address problems and challenges in research design or method. Bringing the field authoritatively and comprehensively up to date since the publication of the Handbook of Reading Research Volume IV, this volume presents multiple perspectives that will facilitate new research development, tackling topics including diverse student populations and sociocultural perspectives on reading development, digital innovation, literacies and platforms, conceptions of teachers reading readers and texts, and the role of affect, cognition, and social-emotional learning in the reading process. New methods for researching reading instruction with attention to equity, inclusion, and education policies; language development and reading comprehension; instructional practices to promote reading development and comprehension for diverse groups of readers. Each volume of this handbook has come to define the field for the period of time it covers, and this volume is no exception, providing a definitive compilation of current reading research. This is a must-have resource for all students, teachers, reading specialists, and researchers focused on and interested in reading and literacy research and improving both instruction and programs to cultivate strong readers and teachers.

Accelerating the Literacy Performance of Bilingual Students, Whitewashed Critical Perspectives Catherine Compton-Lilly, Tisha Lewis Ellison, Kristen Perry, Peter Smagorinsky, 2021-06-30 This volume examines revolutionary constructs in literacy education and demonstrates how they have been gentrified, whitewashed, and appropriated, losing their revolutionary edge so as to become palatable for the mainstream. Written by top scholars in literacy education, chapters cover key concepts that were originally conceived as radical theories to upset the status quo, including Third Space, Funds of Knowledge, Culturally Relevant Pedagogies, and more. Each chapter addresses how the core theory was culturally appropriated and defanged to support rather than take down racial and societal hierarchies. Critiquing the harmful impact of watering down these theories, the contributors offer ways to restore the edge to these once groundbreaking ideas, reject racist and assimilationist trends, and support the original vision behind these liberatory theories. In so doing, this volume adopts a truly radical critical stance that is essential for researchers, scholars, and students in literacy education.
