

B.B. KING
Live In Africa

King was invited to take part in the festival. His performance before an audience of 80,000 Africans is considered to be one of the greatest of his phenomenal career - a career that earned him the title of "King of the Blues". This inspired performance was shot by Leon Gast who won an Academy Award for When We Were Kings, a documentary about the fight between Muhammad Ali and Joe Frazier. If you look closely you can see the shadow of the shadow of the shadow. Now this album on DVD and on CD is back in the shop of music is free if again.
