Big City Cool Short Stories About Urban Youth:

Big City Cool Morton Jerry Weiss, Helen S. Weiss, 2002 A collection of short stories shares the experiences and emotions of young people growing up in big cities across America A Study Guide for Judith Ortiz Cofer's "American History" Gale, Cengage Learning, Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature Children's Literature and New York City Padraic Whyte, Keith O'Sullivan, 2014-01-10 This collection explores the significance of New York City in children's literature stressing literary political and societal influences on writing for young people from the twentieth century to the present day Contextualized in light of contemporary critical and cultural theory the chapters examine the varying ways in which children's literature has engaged with New York City as a city space both in terms of urban realism and as an idea such as the fantasy of the city as a place of opportunity or other associations The collection visits not only dominant themes motifs and tropes but also the different narrative methods employed to tell readers about the history function physical structure and conceptualization of New York City acknowledging the shared or symbiotic relationship between literature and the city just as literature can give imaginative reality to the city the city has the potential to shape the literary text This book critically engages with most of the major forms and genres for children young adults that dialogue with New York City and considers such authors as Margaret Wise Brown Felice Holman E L Konigsburg Maurice Sendak J D Salinger John Donovan Shaun Tan Elizabeth Enright and Patti Smith Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments

Children's Fiction about 9/11 Jo Lampert,2009-09-10 Looking at examples including picture books young adult novels and DC Comics Lampert explores ethnic national and heroic identities in this pioneering and timely book that examines the ways in which cultural identities are constructed within young adult and children s literature about the attacks of September 11 2001

Walter Dean Myers Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-01-24 Walter Dean Myers preeminent author of teen fiction biography and verse refines the image of black characters that are frequently trivialized or vilified in juvenile literature advertising television and film From his saga The Glory Field to his novel The Young Landlords Myers s canon surveys the complex realm of the teen years as colliding settings in home school and the street This volume introduces readers to both the writer and his work with an emphasis on the characters dates events motifs and themes from the books Myers s 101 A to Z entries offer concise analytical discussion on all topics and include generous citations from primary and secondary sources Each entry concludes with a selected bibliography on such subjects as segregation Malcolm X urbanism writing metafiction drugs and alcohol slavery and the Vietnam War Appendices offer a timeline of historical events in Myers s writings and forty topics for group or individual projects oral analysis background material and theme development A map of Harlem where many of the stories are set genealogical diagrams for characters and an author chronology contribute to a comprehensive presentation discussion of Amy Tan's life and works is a necessity for high school students and an enriching supplement for book club members. A tour de force in Asian American writing, Amy Tan has created works that are essential to high school and undergraduate literature classes and are often book club selections. Reading Amy Tan is a handy resource that offers both groups plot summaries of five of Tan's novels as well as character and thematic analysis. The handbook also provides an overview of Tan's life and discusses how she emerged onto the scene as a novelist. Tan's typical themes including Asian American issues and mother-daughter relationships are examined in relation to today's current events and pop culture. Readers will also discover how and where they can find Tan on the Internet and how the media has received her works. The What Do I Read Next chapter will help readers find other authors and works that deal with similar subjects. This handbook is an indispensable tool for both high school and public libraries.

Reading Amy Tan Lan Dong,2009-06-08 This essential
