Billy Rose's Aquacade: Golden Gate International Exposition, 1940 Billy Rose, Golden Gate International Exposition, 2016
Billy Rose's Aquacade, 1940 San Francisco's Lost Landmarks James R. Smith, 2005 With long forgotten stories and evocative photographs San Francisco's Lost Landmarks showcases the once familiar sites that have faded into dim memories and hazy legends Not just a list of places facts and dates this pictorial history shows why San Francisco has been a legendary travel destination and one of the world's premier places to live and work for more than one hundred and fifty years It not only tells of the lost landmarks but also dishes up the flavour of what it was like to experience these past treasures We Came Here to Shine Susie Orman Schnall, 2020-06-16 In this remarkable novel two young women face towering adversity amid the historic spectacle of the 1939 New York World's Fair Lynda Cohen Loigman author of The Two Family House Vivi Holden is closer than ever to becoming a lead Hollywood actress until an unfair turn of events sends her back to New York Desperate for a chance to return to L A she sets out to perform at the upcoming World's Fair It won't be easy but her summer in New York will help her finally find her own way on her own terms Maxine Roth dreams of becoming a serious journalist at the iconic New York Times But instead she's landed a post at the pop up publication dedicated to covering the World's Fair Once again she finds her big ideas are continually overlooked by her male counterparts But she's worked far too hard to sit on the sidelines When Max and Vivi's worlds collide they forge an enduring friendship One that shows them to be the daring bold women they are In the most meaningful summer of their lives they will learn to never stop holding on to what matters most The New York World's Fair, 1939/1940 Richard Wurts, 2013-05-27 Photographic tour of best loved world's fair the 700 foot tall Trylon the 200 foot wide Perisphere GM's Futurama ride 3 D movies Elektro the 7 foot tall robot artwork by Dali and Calder much more 155 photographs map Synchronized Swimming Dawn Pawson Bean, 2005-03-18 From novelty tricks in swim classes through the Aquacades and movies to the highly complex Olympic competitions this history of synchronized swimming tells how the sport grew examines the role the United States has played in its worldwide development and describes the status of synchronized swimming in world sporting events today Among the topics covered are competition development development around the United States rules and technical changes and leadership from volunteers to a National Office Four appendices list major award winners U S National Champions the results of major international competitions and U S participation in international events The work boasts photographs from the first trial national competition in 1942 to the World Championships of 2003 as well as a full bibliography More Than Shelter Amy L. Howard, 2014-05-01 In the popular imagination public housing tenants are considered at best victims of intractable poverty and at worst criminals More Than Shelter makes clear that such limited perspectives do not capture the rich reality of tenants active engagement in shaping public housing into communities By looking closely at three public housing projects in San Francisco Amy L Howard brings to light the dramatic measures tenants have taken to create and sustain and strengthen communities that mattered to them More Than Shelter opens with the tumultuous institutional history of the San Francisco Housing Authority from its inception during the New Deal era through its repeated leadership failures to its attempts to boost its credibility in the 1990s Howard then turns to Valencia Gardens in the Mission District built in 1943 the project became a perpetually contested and embattled space Within that space tenants came together in what Howard calls affective activism activism focused on intentional relationships and community building that served to fortify residents in the face of shared challenges Such activism also fueled cross sector coalition building at Ping Yuen in Chinatown bringing tenants and organizations together to advocate for and improve public housing The account of their experience breaks new ground in highlighting the diversity of public housing in more ways than one The experience of North Beach Place in turn raises questions about the politics of development and redevelopment in this case Howard examines activism across generations first by African Americans seeking to desegregate public housing then by cross racial and cross ethnic tenant groups mobilizing to maintain public housing in the shadow of gentrification Taken together the stories Howard tells challenge assumptions about public housing and its tenants and make way for a broader more productive and inclusive vision of the public housing program in the United States

The Valley of Heart's Delight Robin Chapman,2022-07-25 The Santa Clara Valley with its rich soil and sunny weather has been home to great diversity and great innovation long before it became known as Silicon Valley California's first immigrants from Mexico were astonished by its beauty The land is moist and the hills have an abundance of rosemary and herbs sunflowers in bloom vines as plentiful as a vineyard wrote one From the movie stars of Hollywood's golden era who once came to play to billionaires who grew apricots for pleasure the valley has hosted orchards electric railroads Army camps and even a love struck poet Join author and historian Robin Chapman as she uncovers the true tales of this ever changing place

Stars, Fans, and Consumption in the 1950s Sumiko Higashi,2014-12-17 As the leading fan magazine in the postwar era Photoplay constructed female stars as social types who embodied a romantic and leisured California lifestyle Addressing working and lower middle class readers who were prospering in the first mass consumption society the magazine published not only publicity stories but also beauty secrets fashion layouts interior design tips recipes advice columns and vacation guides Postwar femininity was constructed in terms of access to commodities in suburban houses as the site of family togetherness As the decade progressed however changing social mores regarding female identity and behavior eroded the relationship between idolized stars and worshipful fans When the magazine adopted tabloid conventions to report sex scandals like the Debbie Eddie Liz affair stars were demystified and fans became scandal mongers But the construction of female identity based on goods and performance that resulted in unstable fragmented selves remains a legacy evident in postmodern culture today

That Was Entertainment Bernard F. Dick,2018-06-04 That Was Entertainment The Golden Age of the MGM Musical traces the development of the MGM musical from The Broadway Melody 1929 through its heyday in the 1940s and 1950s and its decline in the 1960s culminating in the notorious 1970 MGM auction when Judy Garland's ruby slippers from The Wizard of Oz, Charlton Heston's chariot from Ben Hur and Fred Astaire's trousers and dress shirt from Royal Wedding vanished to the highest bidders. That Was Entertainment uniquely reconstructs the life of Arthur Freed whose unit at MGM became the gold standard against which the musicals of other studios were measured. Without Freed, Judy Garland, Gene Kelly, Fred Astaire, Ann Miller, Betty Garrett, Cyd Charisse, Arlene Dahl, Vera Ellen, Lucille Bremer, Gloria DeHaven, Howard Keel and June Allyson would never have had the signature films that established them as movie legends. MGM's past is its present. No other studio produced such a range of musicals that are still shown today on television and all of which are covered in this volume: from integrated musicals in which song and dance were seamlessly embedded in the plot (Meet Me in St. Louis and Seven Brides for Seven Brothers) to revues (The Hollywood Revue of 1929 and Ziegfeld Follies), original musicals (Singin' in the Rain, Easter Parade and It's Always Fair Weather), adaptations of Broadway shows (Girl Crazy, On the Town, Show Boat, Kiss Me Kate, Brigadoon, Kismet and Bells Are Ringing), musical versions of novels and plays (Gigi, The Pirate and Summer Holiday), operettas (the films of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy), mythico-historical biographies of composers (Johann Strauss Jr. in The Great Waltz and Sigmund Romberg in Deep in My Heart) and musicals featuring songwriting teams (Rodgers and Hart in Words and Music and Kalmar and Ruby in Three Little Words), opera stars (Enrico Caruso in The Great Caruso and Marjorie Lawrence in Interrupted Melody) and pop singers (Ruth Etting in Love Me or Leave Me). Also covered is the water ballet musical in a class by itself with Esther Williams starring as MGM's resident mermaid. This is a book for longtime lovers of the movie musical and those discovering the genre for the first time.
