As We Know Poems:

As We Know John Ashbery, 1979 A gay poet P Thorslev As We Know John Ashbery, 1992 As We Know presents 47 lyrical pieces together with a long poem Litany Here as in the shorter lyrics is a revelation of the self's progress toward identity sometimes silence and solitude sometimes through the cacophony of the modern urban world Viking Penguin Penguin Books The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Emotions in Classical Indian Philosophy Maria Heim, Chakravarthi Ram-Prasad, Roy Tzohar, 2021-04-08 Drawing on a rich variety of premodern Indian texts across multiple traditions genres and languages this collection explores how emotional experience is framed evoked and theorized in order to offer compelling insights into human subjectivity Rather than approaching emotion through the prism of Western theory a team of leading scholars of Indian traditions showcases the literary texture philosophical reflections and theoretical paradigms that classical Indian sources provide in their own right The focus is on how the texts themselves approach those dimensions of the human condition we may intuitively think of as being about emotion without pre judging what that might be The result is a collection that reveals the range and diversity of phenomena that benefit from being gathered under the formal term emotion but which in fact open up what such theorisation representation and expression might contribute to a cross cultural understanding of this term In doing so these chapters contribute to a cosmopolitan comparative and pluralistic conception of human experience Adopting a broad phenomenological methodology this handbook reframes debates on emotion within classical Indian thought and is an invaluable resource for researchers and students seeking to understand the field beyond the Western tradition The Songs We Know Best Karin Roffman, 2017-06-13 The first biography of an American master The Songs We Know Best the first comprehensive biography of the early life of John Ashbery the winner of nearly every major American literary award reveals the unusual ways he drew on the details of his youth to populate the poems that made him one of the most original and unpredictable forces of the last century in arts and letters Drawing on unpublished correspondence juvenilia and childhood diaries as well as more than one hundred hours of conversation with the poet Karin Roffman offers an insightful portrayal of Ashbery during the twenty eight years that led up to his stunning debut Some Trees chosen by W H Auden for the 1955 Yale Younger Poets Prize Roffman shows how Ashbery's poetry arose from his early lessons both on the family farm and in 1950s New York City a bohemian existence that teemed with artistic fervor and radical innovations inspired by Dada and surrealism as well as lifelong friendships with painters and writers such as Frank O'Hara Jane Freilicher Nell Blaine Kenneth Koch James Schuyler and Willem de Kooning Ashbery has a reputation for being enigmatic and playfully elusive but Roffman's biography reveals his deft mining of his early life for the flint and tinder from which his provocative later poems grew producing a body of work that he calls the experience of experience an intertwining of life and art in extraordinarily intimate ways The Sense of the Past Bernard Williams, 2009-02-09 Before his death in 2003 Bernard Williams planned to publish a collection of historical essays focusing primarily on the ancient world This posthumous volume brings together a much wider selection written over some forty years His legacy lives on in this masterful work the first collection ever published of Williams s essays on the history of philosophy The subjects range from the sixth century B C to the twentieth A D from Homer to Wittgenstein by way of Socrates Plato Aristotle Descartes Hume Sidgwick Collingwood and Nietzsche Often one would be hard put to say which part is history which philosophy Both are involved throughout because this is the history of philosophy written philosophically Historical exposition goes hand in hand with philosophical scrutiny Insights into the past counteract blind acceptance of present assumptions In his touching and illuminating introduction Myles Burnyeat writes of these essays They show a depth of commitment to the history of philosophy seldom to be found nowadays in a thinker so prominent on the contemporary philosophical scene The result celebrates the interest and importance to philosophy today of its near and distant past The Sense of the Past is one of three collections of essays by Bernard Williams published by Princeton University Press since his death In the Beginning Was the Deed Realism and Moralism in Political Argument selected edited and with an introduction by Geoffrey Hawthorn and Philosophy as a Humanistic Discipline selected edited and with an introduction by A W Moore make up the trio Murder Ballads David John Brennan,2016-06-27 In 1798 William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge were engaged in a top secret experiment This was not as many assume the creation of a book of poetry A book emerged to be sure the landmark Lyrical Ballads But in Murder Ballads David John Brennan posits that the two poets were in fact pursuing far different ends to birth from their poems a singular idealized Poet Despite their success such Frankensteinian pursuits proved rife with consequence for the men Doubts and questions plagued them What does it mean to be a poet if your work is not your own Who is best fit to lay claim to a parcel of poetic property that was collaboratively crafted and bequeathed to a fictitious Poet How does one kill a Poet born of one s own hand Blending critical examination with jocular playlets in verse featuring the authors of the two books in baffled conversation Murder Ballads reopens a 200 year old cold case that never received a proper investigation Who was the first true Author of Lyrical Ballads and how exactly did he die A History of Classical Greek Literature T.
