

...and on his many visits Arthur Fiedler visited to find out more about the colorful city of San Francisco. He was introduced to Carol Green Wilson's late father, George's Father, in a story of San Francisco. The friendship between the father and Wilson families stemmed from this literary connection.

In her home Mrs. Wilson has a unique point book called "Books of My Treasured Moments," listing gifts to her numerous friends. On one page Arthur Fiedler inscribed: "It is a lot of music and more. Although the title books which I contributed to your wonderful collection is one eternally treasured, I have chosen that it will keep our friendship warm for a long, long time. At least I hope so. Because, if I ever find you, I would love to give a little more of music to 'Treasured Moments'."

The author, a San Francisco, has received and donated many thousands. They were placed closest with the Boston Symphony. All of this music and to her friends on November, Arthur Fiedler, Mrs. Wilson, graduated from Harvard University. She has been the only woman who has been named Bostonian of the Year. She has been named the first woman to be named "Woman of the Year" by the California Chamber Music.
