Arts Of The Islamic:

The Formation of Islamic Art Oleg Grabar, 1987-01-01 This classic work on the nature of early Islamic art has now been brought up to date in order to take into consideration material that has recently come to light In a new chapter Oleg Grabar develops alternate models for the formation of Islamic art tightens its chronology and discusses its implications for the contemporary art of the Muslim world Reviews of the first edition Grabar examines the possible ramifications of sociological economic historical psychological ecological and archaeological influences upon the art of Islam He explains that Islamic art is woven from the threads of an Eastern Oriental tradition and the hardy surviving strands of Classical style and he illustrates this web by means of a variety of convincing and well chosen examples Art Bulletin A book of absorbing interest and immense erudition All Islamic archaeologists and scholars will thank Professor Grabar for a profound and original study of an immense and complex field which may provoke controversy but must impress by its mastery and charm by its modesty Times Literary Supplement Oleg Grabar in this book of exceptional subtlety and taste surveys and extends his own important contributions to the study of early Islamic art history and works out an original and imaginative approach to the elusive and complex problems of understanding Islamic art American Historical Review Islamic Art and Spirituality Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 1987-02-12 With remarkable breadth of vision Seyyed Hossein Nasr reveals for both Western and Muslim readers how each art form in the Islamic tradition is based upon a science of nature concerned not with the outer appearance of things but with their inner reality Ranging across calligraphy painting architecture literature music and the plastic arts Nasr penetrates to the inner dimension of Islam and shows the role art plays in the life of individual Muslims and the community as a whole the role of inspiring the remembrance and contemplation of God Once the author establishes art as an aid and support to the spiritual life he traces the creative act to its ultimate source inner knowledge and barakah or grace which make the crystallization of inner realities in form and space and time possible Through this knowledge and grace the author asserts unity manifests upon the plane of multiplicity making archetypal realities perceivable by the senses Through this knowledge and grace art functions as a ladder for the journey of the soul from the visible to the invisible How Islamic art leads man to the inner chamber of divine revelation forms the substance of much of this important work An especially close look is given to the Sufi tradition within Islam for its mystical teachers have often clearly demonstrated in their works the spiritual significance of beauty and served as the source of inspiration for art By rediscovering the root of art in the Islamic tradition Seyyed Hossein Nasr opens doors to new dimensions of unity which have seemingly been obscured in recent Western art In so doing he extends the significance of this book beyond the Islamic belief system to touch the hearts and creative impulses of readers from all traditions Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen, Oleg Grabar, Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar, Marilyn Jenkins, 2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world

Islamic Arts A&I Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 1997-04-24 A comprehensive survey that brilliantly captures the essence of Islamic culture

Islamic Art Barbara Brend, 1991 Presents a region by region history of the art of the Islamic world looking at architecture the art of the book mosaics pottery textiles and other decorative art forms

Islamic Art Robert Irwin, 1997 Among the greatest and least understood areas of art is that of the Islamic nations and peoples Robert Irwin an expert in the arts of Islam and a compelling writer takes the reader deep into the cultures in which some of the world's most splendid art was created Working thematically he surveys the refined and exquisite arts of porcelain enamel manuscript illumination metalwork calligraphy textiles and more within a larger picture of a powerful faith a profound tradition and a magnificent history Writing in a lively and engaging style Irwin places this complex art in context He pays close attention to patronage to how works of art are used and displayed to the traditions within the Islamic cultures of fine craftsmanship and to the shifting relationship of art to religious practice and belief

Islamic Art and Beyond Oleg Grabar, 2024-08-01 Islamic Art and Beyond is the third in a set of four volumes of studies on Islamic art by Oleg Grabar Between them they bring together more than eighty articles studies and essays work spanning half a century by a master of the field Each volume takes a particular section of the topic the three other volumes being entitled Early Islamic Art 650-1100 Islamic Visual Culture 1100-1800 and Jerusalem Reflecting the many incidents of a long academic life they illustrate one scholar's attempt at making order and sense of 1400 years of artistic growth They deal with architecture painting objects iconography theories of art aesthetics and ornament and they seek to integrate our knowledge of Islamic art with Islamic culture and history as well as with the global concerns of the History of Art In addition to the articles selected each volume contains an introduction which describes often in highly personal ways the context in which Grabar's scholarship developed and the people who directed and mentored his efforts The articles in the present volume illustrate how the author's study of Islamic art led him in two directions for a further understanding of the arts One is how to define Islamic art and what impulses provided it with its own peculiar forms and dynamics of growth Was it a faith or a combination of social historical and cultural events And how has Islamic art impacted on the contemporary arts of the Islamic world The other issue is that of the meanings to be given to forms like domes so characteristic of Islamic art or to terms like symbol signs or aesthetic values in the arts especially when one considers the contemporary world The Islamic examples allow for the development of new intellectual positions for the history and criticism of the arts everywhere Philosophy and Arts in the Islamic World Union européenne des arabisants et islamisants. Congress,1998 The volume contains 26 contributions to literature philosophy linguistics and epigraphy in Islamic culture ranging from pre Islamic poetry to contemporary prose from the Ihwan as Safa to the theology of Mawdudi from lexicography to epigraphy These papers were read at the Eighteenth International Congress of the Union Européenne des Arabisants et Islamisants organized by the Catholic University of Leuven KUL from 3 to 10 September 1996 A second volume of proceedings that appears along with this one OLA 86 is more concerned with questions of actuality and political organisation including Christian minorities in the Arab world in their relation to the Muslim environment As such the two volumes put together will provide to the world of learning we may say an overall picture of the current scientific investigations about Islamic culture and society Studies in the Islamic Decorative Arts Robert Hillenbrand,2019-12-31 Islamic artists channelled their energies not into easel painting and large scale sculpture but rather into what Western scholars obeying a very different hierarchy of art forms rather disparagingly term the decorative arts or even the minor arts In point of fact some of the greatest masterpieces of Islamic art are in the media of ceramics metalwork textiles ivory and glass Often the images they bear express a complex set of meanings for Islam inherited much material from the iconographic systems of earlier civilizations notably those of the ancient Near East and of the classical world Islam also developed its own distinctive vocabulary of signs and symbols Accordingly questions of iconography and meaning bulk large among the studies gathered together in the present volume These studies written over a period of almost thirty years and taken from a wide variety of published sources deal with aspects of the decorative arts from Spain to India and from the 7th to the 17th century They focus in turn upon ceramics and metalwork on coins carpets and calligraphy and on carving in wood and ivory They are arranged under three headings The first comprises general surveys of the field covering the content of these arts and confronting the challenges they present such as the Islamic approach to three dimensional sculpture The second deals with questions of iconography and meaning while the third comprises a series of studies devoted to specific media such as ivory woodwork and numismatics This volume therefore offers not only a general introduction to some of the problems posed by Islamic art but also readings of key objects in an attempt to explore their meaning and finally an in depth focus on individual objects representing specific genres and media What is "Islamic" Art? Wendy M. K. Shaw,2019-10-10 An alternate approach to Islamic art emphasizing literary over historical contexts and reception over production in visual arts and music
