School Leadership in the 21st Century Brent Davies, Linda Ellison, Christopher Bowring-Carr, 2005 Education reform continues to be a dominating feature of education in the UK and many other countries throughout the world As a result of this it is now more important than ever that headteachers and school managers develop the skills which enable them to manage their new responsibilities effectively In School Leadership in the 21st Century all the major aspects of school leadership are discussed including the strategic and ethical dimensions of leadership leading and managing change leading and managing staff in high performance schools information for student learning and organisational learning transformation of schools in the twenty first century The authors of this completely updated and revised edition have addressed the new standards and competency frameworks making this an essential read for all headteachers and aspiring headteachers on NPQH or LPSH courses and anyone else with an interest in school leadership Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P. Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development Nurturing Independent Thinkers Michael Bosher, Patrick Hazlewood, 2005-10-01 St John s School and Community College in Wiltshire made headline news this year In challenging old ideas about homework and the National Curriculum St John s has developed its own integrated curriculum based on learning to learn managing information managing situations relating to people global citizenship a curriculum designed to equip learners with the skills and knowledge they need to thrive in the real world The success of this new approach has resulted in improved academic progress better behaviour greater learning opportunities increased confidence more responsible learners Nurturing Independent Thinkers is both a practical guide to the implementation of the St John s curriculum and a realistic account of the journey taken by the staff and students involved

IMPROVING SCHOOLS FOR AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDENTS Sheryl J. Denbo,Lynson Moore Beaulieu,2002-01-01 Improving Schools for African American Students is designed to provide educational leaders with a better understanding of how to recognize the diversity of strengths that Black students bring with them to school and how to use these strengths to improve achievement The articles contained in this book discuss generic education issues such as policy reform the importance of high quality teaching and the improvement of schools from the perspective of the academic achievement of African American students Part I explores institutional racism in the context of America s public schools and provides suggestions for educational leaders to eliminate harmful policies and practices within educational institutions and settings Part II discusses the kinds of institutional and instructional changes that are needed to support successful schooling of African American children and youth Part III focuses on the challenges presented to African American students by the current high stakes testing environment that surrounds standards assessment and accountability A review of the literature on schools that have succeeded in improving achievement for African American students at the elementary middle and high school levels with districts moving towards narrowing the achievement gap is included This text examines a wide variety of policies programs practices and research that will provide valuable insight The emphasis throughout the book is on the ability of educators to successfully restructure their schools offer high quality teaching and learning standards for African American students and to make the kinds of changes that will result in high achievement for all students
