Indonesia Former Ambassador in charge of ASEAN Japan's ASEAN Policy Sueo Sudo, 2016-05-13 The central puzzle in the study of Japanese foreign policy has been why Japan has continued to play a passive role in international affairs despite its impressive economic and political power Challenging this central puzzle the core argument of this study is to present an alternative path for the study of Japanese foreign policy In fact in recent years Japanese foreign policy has become less dependent on the United States more strategic towards Asia and more energetic towards international and regional institutions One of the main features is multilateralism in Japanese foreign policy as shown by Japan's active participation in the regional institutions In pursuing multilateralism Japan cooperated closely with the only durable regional body in Southeast Asia to wit the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Given the fact that East Asian regionalism has been driven by ASEAN it is of utmost urgency to investigate the emerging partnership between Japan and ASEAN The central thesis of this study is thus to put Japan's ASEAN policy into a proper perspective by asserting that Japan's new policy initiatives towards ASEAN are not reactive nor are they exceptions in a broader framework of merely reactive foreign policy

Japan in a Dynamic Asia Yoichiro Sato, Satu Limaye, 2006-05-25 Japan in a Dynamic Asia examines a new phenomenon in Japanese foreign policy Japan's increasing activism under the Koizumi administration Behind this policy shift are the end of the Cold War drastic growth of China proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and new transnational security threats This book updates our understanding of Japan's rapidly changing foreign policies in the contexts of the new regional power balance and security concerns Unlike most books on Japanese foreign policy which focus mainly on U S Japan relations this book analyzes Japan's relations with individual Asian countries and sub regions The role of the United States when relevant is discussed in the contexts of these bilateral and multilateral relations Editors Yoichiro Sato and Satu Limaye have gathered an impressive array of essays that will interest students of Japanese politics foreign policy and international relations in the Asia Pacific region The U.S. Indo-Pacific Strategy & The Prospect of Forging A New Multipolar World Jin Ran, 2023-02-23

Against the current historical context that the United States is in the process of forging and implementing a grand Indo Pacific strategy and that the U S has shown its intention to align its strategies toward other regions of the world with its strategic interest in Asia together this study aims to explore and analyse the critical factors issues and mechanisms which would most likely be able to affect the relations among major powers and entities in Europe as well as in the Indo Pacific region and to see how possibly the main actors in these two regions could jointly shape a different model of global order based on their management of and involvements in the core issues identified in this project The next ten to twenty years will likely be a critical period to see whether a different global system from the current one can be forged and what it might look like India-ASEAN Relations Dr. Tripti Sharma, 2021-09-11 The changes in the global environment such as the demise of the socialist system initiation of globalization the declining position of international organizations and reduction in the importance of forums like NAM have made it imperative for India to review its old foreign policy nuances For long India hardly regarded the countries of Southeast Asia and South Pacific as priority areas despite the latter's cultural, political, economic and strategic significance. The long spell of mutual alienation understandably gave way to mutual distrust and suspicion. This dark period in India's relations with the countries of Southeast Asia and South Pacific was however brought to an end following the reshaping and reorientation of India's foreign policy manifest in the vigorous pursuit of Look East policy. It was Prime Minister Narasimha Rao who concentrated on forging links and enhancing cultural, economic, political and strategic cooperation with Southeast Asia and transformed this important urge into India's foreign policy initiative that culminated in Look East policy. India's engagement with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) started with its Look East Policy in the year 1991. ASEAN has a membership of 10 countries namely Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, PDR, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam. India became a sectoral dialogue partner of ASEAN in 1992 and full dialogue partner in 1996. In November 2001 the ASEAN-India relationship was upgraded to the summit level. Consequently the latter had already registered impressive progress in the field of economy, strategy and cultural relations between India and ASEAN.

On East Asian Regional Cooperation I Zhang Yunling, 2019-06-18. The book intends to locate the process and effectiveness of cooperation in East Asia to regard the construction of the East Asian community as the ideal, to see the contradictions and difficulties in construction as the reality and to identify the actual development and achievement as the choice and effort between the two. The year of 1997 saw the Asian financial crisis which turned out to be a disaster but also opened up an opportunity for East Asia to establish cooperation mechanisms. Starting with the crisis, this book examines the origin and development of the East Asian cooperation movement. More importantly, it investigates the obstacles and resistance and provides insights into the cooperation within East Asia in the context of unstable political environments. Specifically, it expounds the East Asian Free Trade Area, monetary cooperation as well as the cooperation within Northeast Asian and Asia Pacific regions.

On East Asian Regional Cooperation II Zhang Yunling, 2019-06-18. The book intends to locate the process and effectiveness of cooperation in East Asia to regard the construction of the East Asian community as the ideal, to see the contradictions and difficulties in construction as the reality and to identify the actual development and achievement as the choice and effort between the two. Instead of the East Asian Community, various functional mechanisms have come into being in the development of East Asian cooperation because of complicated historical and economic relations among the countries. This book examines the roles played by ASEAN, Association of Southeast Asian Nations, Japan, the United States and China in the cooperation respectively. More importantly, China's strategic orientation in regional cooperation is studied in the last chapter. It observes that China, as a rising power, is re-establishing regional relations and order with its geographically neighbouring countries as the basis.

The Protection and Promotion of Human Security in East Asia B. Howe, 2013-10-01. Although many of the states of East Asia have achieved startling success, not all have benefited from the region's development. Many of the most vulnerable sections of East Asian populations still face tremendous challenges in their daily lives have yet to enjoy the rewards of the Asian Century and may even be further imperiled as a result of the forces of development Brendan Howe examines the measurements of success in East Asian development and governance from a human centered perspective He assesses obstacles to the protection and promotion of human security and development through detailed case studies of the most challenged states in the region including Burma Timor Leste Japan and North and South Korea He looks at the roles that East Asian actors can play and have been playing in protecting and promoting human security at the theoretical and practical level A Regional Contemporary C. J. W.-L. Wee, 2025-03-18 The first critical account of the enormous upsurge in cultural expression across Asian countries from 1979 2008 and the new possibilities it presented for the aesthetic and cultural re imagining of a unified contemporary Asia Biennial style art exhibitions New discourses in modern and contemporary art The production and circulation of increasingly debordered popular culture A Regional Contemporary by C J W L Wee is an investigative account of the dramatic increase in cultural expression in Asia from 1979 to 2008 with the 1990s as the focal point of this period The so called East Asian miracle Wee argues projected a fictive but shared contemporary regional identity onto Northeast and Southeast Asia collectively taken as East Asia The new cultural explosion was notably enabled by expanded capitalist energies that reached a level critical enough to reposition the region s postcolonial and Cold War era nationalisms and this book examines the resulting implications A sophisticated and compelling study A Regional Contemporary is the first to examine the conjunction of high and popular culture in the region Moreover Wee reveals how the various cultural formations of this regional contemporary were able to traverse if not overcome uneven national economies the memory of Japanese empire and the geopolitical rifts of post Cold War nationalisms While foregrounding new cultural expression Wee simultaneously examines how novel economic conditions bolstered a more confident questioning of Western modernity s dominance and enhanced the capacity for regional dialogue in the bid to overcome colonial era legacies even as those legacies were being absorbed into the region VH1 VH1 For the designer if space is tight on the back this can be deleted
