Babettes Feasts subtitled:

Babette's Feast Julian Baggini, 2020-05-14 On the face of it Gabriel Axel's Babette's Feast 1989 is a film in which the eyes and mouths of religious zealots are opened to the glories of the sensual world. It is a critique of what Nietzsche called life denying religion in favour of life affirming sensuality. But to view the film in that way is to get it profoundly wrong. In his study of the film Julian Baggini argues that Babette's Feast is not about the battle between religiosity and secularity but a deep examination of how the two can come together. Baggini's analysis focuses on themes of love, pleasure, artistry and grace to provide a rich philosophical reading of this most sensual of films.

Socrates and Subtitles William G. Smith, 2014-01-10 A sequel to the author's earlier work Plato and Popcorn: A Philosopher's Guide to 75 Thought Provoking Movies, this book presents analyses of 95 movies from the Americas and 20 other countries. Each entry includes a brief introduction to the film along with a list of philosophical questions to ponder after viewing it. Most entries also include a list of additional recommended films. The films cover a wide range of genres and topics from the haunting tale of doomed Polish freedom fighters in Kanal's World War II Warsaw to the romantic and passionate story of rekindled love in Australia's Innocence. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here.

The New York Times Guide to the Best 1,000 Movies Ever Made Peter M. Nichols, 2004-02-21 From the film critics of The New York Times come these uncut original reviews of the most popular and influential movies ever made from the Talkies to blockbuster megahits like Chicago and The Wizard of Oz from timeless classics like Casablanca and Notorious to beloved foreign films by Truffaut and Kurosawa, Fellini and Almodovar. The reviews eloquent, incisive and intuitive reflect Hollywood history at its best, must have reading for movie lovers or students. In addition, this essential volume includes full cast and production credits for every movie, the 10 Best lists for every year from 1931 to the present, an index of films by genre and an index of foreign films by country of origin. This edition is thoroughly updated to include all the important movies of the past several years as well as a new introduction by A Times film critic A. O. Scott.

Film and Faith Carson Holloway, Micah Watson, 2023-11-21 Film and Faith: Modern Cinema and the Struggle to Believe explores religious themes in contemporary film with a focus on recent depictions of religion's continuing manifestations in a secularizing age. The contributors are students of philosophy, political theory and theology who examine religious and philosophical ideas in commercially and artistically important modern films. They offer a scholarly yet accessible consideration of contemporary films exploring the problem of faith in the modern world. The approach is balanced, sympathetic but not uncritical, reflecting a complexity in the minds of the contributors themselves. While they are religious believers, nonetheless, established scholars trained in mainstream academic disciplines. The chapters cover cinema that is important in different ways and that represent different genres from the art films of Terrence Malick to the more conventional but serious dramas of the Coen brothers and Frank Capra to popular action blockbusters like the Dark Knight and the Marvel films. Drawing on these cinematic works, the authors explore religious themes that remain salient even in a time when religion seems to be in decline themes such as sin and judgment the experience of grace and reconciliation and confrontation with radical evil
