Halliwell's Film, Video & DVD Guide, 2008 DVD & Video Guide 2004 Mick Martin, Marsha Porter, 2003 Featuring more than 400 new entries among reviews and ratings of 18 000 movies this guide to films that are available on video and DVD includes brand new DVD listings director and star indexes and much more Original Hollywood's Imperial Wars Armando José Prats, 2004 When the Vietnam War punctured the myth of American military invincibility Hollywood needed a new kind of war movie The familiar triumphal narrative was relegated to history and with it the heroic legacy that had passed from one generation to the next for more than two hundred years How Hollywood helped create and instill the American myth of heroic continuity and how films revised that myth after the Vietnam War is what Armando José Prats explores in Hollywood's Imperial Wars The book offers a new way of understanding the cultural and historical significance of Vietnam in relation to Hollywood's earlier representations of Americans at war from the mythic heroism of a film like Sands of Iwo Jima to the rupture of that myth in films such as The Deer Hunter Apocalypse Now and Platoon As early as the mid 1940s Prats suggests fears aroused by the Cold War were stirring anxieties about sustaining the heroic myth anxieties reflected in the insistent aggressive patriotism in films of the period In this context Prats considers the immeasurable cultural importance of John Wayne the cinematic apotheosis of wartime valor and righteousness whose patriotism was nonetheless deeply compromised by his not having served in World War II Prats reveals how historical and cultural anxieties emerge in well known Vietnam movies in which characters inspired by the heroes of the Second World War are denied the heroic legacy of their fathers American war movies in Prats s analysis were forever altered by the loss in Vietnam Even movies like American Sniper that exalt war heroes are marked as much by the failure of the heroic tropes of old Hollywood war movies as by the tragic turn of actual historical events Tracing what Prats calls the anxiety of legacy through the films of the World War II and post Vietnam War periods this book offers a new way of looking at both the Hollywood war movie and the profound cultural shifts it reflects and refracts

Women in War Films Ralph Donald,Karen MacDonald,2014-04-04 War has been depicted in cinema for more than a century from early silent films to more recent blockbusters such as Saving Private Ryan and Lone Survivor Most war films especially combat films are about men engaged in battle But while Hollywood has reinforced the cultural stereotype of war as a man's job women have not been completely invisible in many of these films whether waiting for their men to return home or standing shoulder to shoulder with their male counterparts on the battlefield In Women in War Films From Helpless Heroine to G I Jane Ralph Donald and Karen MacDonald examine the representations of females in war throughout the history of film They identify various types of women portrayed in these films from home front wives and daughters supporting their loved ones from afar to nurses and doctors stationed near the front lines of combat The authors also look at depictions of foreign females who comfort homesick soldiers ordinary women who unexpectedly encounter the enemy female spies and modern enlistees taking on roles traditionally reserved for men Through these representations the authors explore what war films say about the culture that created them and the social construction of reality that these films assert The book covers an array of war films distributed in the United States including Hearts of the World Wings Mata Hari Mrs Miniver Casablanca Cry Havoc Since You Went Away The Best Years of Our Lives From Here to Eternity The Americanization of Emily M A S H Coming Home Courage under Fire G I Jane and Zero Dark Thirty Featuring an extensive filmography Women in War Films will appeal to scholars of gender studies history and film as well as to readers interested in the evolving portrayals of females in military related cinema Bowker's Complete Video Directory 2001 ,2001
