Back To Earth A Backpackers Journey Into Self And Spirit:

Back to Earth Kerry Temple, 2005 Back to Earth is the powerful personal journey of a man in his middle years who senses that he has drifted away from the ideals of his youth and who must now search for coherence belief and a renewed spirituality following the breakup of his marriage and family Living alone in a cabin in the woods Temple searches his past and tells tales of experiences backpacking in Colorado Dakota New Mexico and Alaska His reflections focus on the spiritual and redemptive qualities of nature the American character and the dilemmas of the split between matter and spirit body and soul God and creation As an earnest pilgrim with a short attention span Temple s story chronicles his journey from an intimacy with the earth to an alienation from it and the need of all humans to find a redemptive reunion The book is a kind of pilgrimage as the author tries to get back home to find God to learn what our species once knew and to rediscover the heart and soul of creation

Emotion in Motion Mike Robinson, David Picard, 2016-05-06 What happens when tourists scream with fear shout with anger and frustration weep with joy and delight or even faint in the face of revealed beauty How can certain sites affect some tourists so deeply that they require hospitalisation and psychiatric treatment What are the inner contours of tourist experience and how does it relate to specific emotional cultures What are the consequences of the emotional cultures of tourists upon destinations How are differences in emotional culture mobilized and played out in the transnational contact zones of international tourism While many books have engaged with the structural frames of tourist practice and experience this is the first to deal with the emotional dimensions of tourism travel and contact and the ways in which they can transform tourists destinations and travel cultures through emotional engagements The book brings together an international array of scholars from anthropology psychiatry history cultural geography and critical tourism studies to explore how the movement to and through the realms of exotic people wild natures subliminal art spirit worlds metropolitan cities and sexualised others variably provoke emotions peak experiences travel syndromes and inner dialogues The authors show how tourism challenges us to engage with concepts of self other time nature sex the body and death Through a set of ethnographic and historic cases they demonstrate that such engagements usually have little to do with the actual destination but rather are deeply anchored in personal memories repressed fears and desires and the collective imaginaries of our societies
