Above Wellington:

Wellington's Redjackets Steve Brown, 2015-10-30 This book should appeal to anyone with an interest in the Napoleonic Wars and especially those with a particular enthusiasm for the Peninsular War The Napoleonic Wars Forum The assault was failing Wellington's men had stormed the walls of the great frontier fortress of Badajoz only to be beaten back with terrible losses Then on the keep of the old castle the French flag was torn down and a British officer's red jacket was hauled up the flagpole It was the signal the British were inside Badajoz This was one of the most famous incidents during the Peninsular War and marked not only the turning point in the capture of Badajoz but of the entire conflict The jacket belonged to Lieutenant James MacPherson of the 45th Nottinghamshire Regiment The 45th had landed with Wellington at Mondego Bay in 1808 and fought with him throughout the entire Peninsular War gaining more battle honours than any other line regiment Wellington's Redjackets The 45th Nottinghamshire Regiment on Campaign in South America and the Peninsular War is one of the most detailed unit histories ever published of a regiment during the Napoleonic era As the first and only study of this regiment Wellington's Redjackets will undoubtedly be an essential purchase for those interested in Napoleonic warfare

Bulletin United States. Army. Corps of Engineers, 1912 Water-supply Paper, 1928 Water-supply Paper Geological Survey (U.S.), 1921 Annual Report Ohio State Board of Agriculture, 1898 Includes abstract of the Proceedings of the county agricultural societies U.S. Geological Survey Water-supply Paper, 1982 The Redcoats of Wellington's Light Division in the Peninsular War Gareth Glover, Robert Burnham, 2023-02-16 The Light Division is rightly regarded as the most famous force within Wellington's army in the Peninsular War Often the first into every battle and the last to withdraw the men of the Light Division were trained to act independently and think for themselves as well as operating in their battalion formations The regiments which comprised the Light Division were present at almost every battle large or small throughout the Peninsular War Many people however associate the Light Division with the men of the 95th Rifles wearing in the distinctive green uniforms made famous in the Sharpe novels What is less understood is that the majority of the Light Division actually consisted of troops dressed in the traditional red uniforms These were men who although equally capable of skirmishing as light infantry actually spent the vast majority of their time formed as regular infantry fighting in line column or square The 95th Rifles has literally a dozen or more memorialists including many famous ones such as Kincaid Harry Smith Harris Costello Leach Simmons and others who have been published and republished countless times But the 52nd Foot the first of the regiments of the Light Division to be trained as light infantry has until now been largely unrepresented After decades of research Gareth Glover has unearthed a collection of short memoirs from soldiers of the 52nd Oxfordshire Regiment which have never been published before and one previously published but now virtually unobtainable This collection will undoubtedly add an essential element to our understanding of the role of the Light Division both in battle and on campaign House documents, 1889 The Directory of Directors in the City of Boston and Vicinity, 1907 Annual
