

Abdul Karim
Sahitya Bisharad
Born: 10-10-1871
Death: 30-09-1953

Abdul Karim Sahitya Bisharad was a true Bengali by nature. He believed---language is the main pillar of our nationalism. We all are Bengali and we should feel proud of our language and culture. Shahitya Bisharad enriched our literature by collecting Puthi of the medieval period. Abdul Karim Sahitya Bisharad was a secular and modern thinker. He was also politically aware.

He will be remembered for his position in favour of Bangla before the movements to establish Bangla as the mother language got underway. He went on to study folklore, searching for traditional elements found in rural culture as well as locating his motherland in reference to those elements. We can say that for him collecting puthis and having discussions on them were part of his folk cultural practice.

He collected more than 2,000 puthis, among which more than 1,000 were written by Bengali Muslims. No other person or organisation had collected such an astounding number of puthis before him.

Karim's literary works were first published in the monthly Naba-Nur (1903-06).
