African American: Readings in History and Identity Al Smith, 2000 Readings in African American Culture Angela Schwendiman, 2022-07-07

Readings in African American Culture Resistance Liberation and Identity from the 1600s to the 21st Century helps readers understand and appreciate the Black experience through readings that illustrate the lives history and intersecting cultures of African Americans and the development of a unique African American identity Early units examine the definition of African American culture through the lens of the cultural trauma of slavery and the power of white privilege in the U S Additional units discuss Afrocentrism and the formation of critical race theory Students read about expressions of Black cultural power Blackness and Black identity in contemporary society and issues related to the appropriation of Black culture The second edition has expanded from four units to seven with new readings addressing topics such as the appropriation Black Twitter and resistance Black athletes challenging the defense of using racial slurs and more Rooted in an interdisciplinary approach Readings in African American Culture is appropriate for courses on Black culture and will be of interest in any course centered on the effects of race and culture on minority populations African American Communication & Identities Ronald L. Jackson, 2004 Boldly contending that culture can and should be a central organizing principle in studies pertaining to human interaction African American Communication and Identities Essential Readings is the first anthology to examine a wide range of communication studies specific to African American communicative experiences including linguistic rhetorical and relational styles In this compelling anthology editor Ronald L Jackson II explores constitutive aspects of African American communication behaviors as they relate to how African Americans define themselves culturally Readers benefit from a plethora of research on African Americans related to almost every area of communication inquiry including theory and identity language performance and rhetoric interpersonal relationships gendered contexts organizational and instructional contexts and mass mediated contexts Creating a space for African American centered research and broadening the scope of the Communication discipline this volume includes Must read classic and contemporary studies of African American communication illuminating the history and development of research and writing in this often overlooked area Explorations of several conceptual innovations that add to the body of communication literature such as Afrocentricity Complicity Theory Cultural Contracts Theory and Black Masculine Identity Theory Section opening introductions situate readings for students and end of chapter discussion questions provoke discussion and critical thought Insightful analyses of the relational dimensions of African Americans and provocative conceptions of African American gendered identities Endowing the field with an intellectual legacy of issues challenges needs and paradigms African American Communication and Identities is ideal for undergraduate and graduate students in Communication Studies and African American Studies courses This volume is also an excellent reader for advanced courses in intercultural communication cross cultural communication race relations and interethnic communication Women's

Identities and Bodies in Colonial and Postcolonial History and Literature Maria Isabel Romero Ruiz, 2012-01-17 Since the second half of the twentieth century there has been a commitment on the part of women writers and scholars to revise and rewrite the history and culture of colonial and post colonial women This collection intends to enter a forum of discussion in which the colonial past serves as a point of reference for the analysis of contemporary issues This volume will examine topics of women s identities and bodies through literary representations and historical accounts In other words the aim is to reconstruct women s identities through the representations of their bodies in literature and to analyse women s bodies historically as sites of abuse discrimination and violence on the one hand and of knowledge and cultural production on the other The chapters of this book will contribute to the formation of a new representation of women through history and literature which fights traditional stereotypes in relation to their bodies and identities Focusing on female bodies as maternal bodies as repositories of history and memory as sexual bodies as healing bodies as performative of gender as black bodies as migrant and hybrid bodies as the objects of regulation and control and as victims of sexual exploitation and murder the different articles contained in this book will examine issues of space power knowledge relations discrimination the production of knowledge gender and boundaries to produce new identities for women which contest and respond to the traditional ones The volume is addressed to a wide readership both scholars and those interested in investigating the dynamics of the female body and the social and cultural conceptualizations of our multicultural and multiethnic contemporary societies in relation to it without forgetting the historical and colonial roots of these new representations

Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter with the African American Great Migration Jennifer T. Kaalund, 2018-11-29 Kaalund examines the constructed and contested Christian Jewish identities in Hebrews and 1 Peter through the lens of the New Negro a diasporic identity similarly constructed and contested during the Great Migration in the early 20th century Like the identity Christian the New Negro emerged in a context marked by instability creativity and the need for a sense of permanence in a hostile political environment Upon examination both identities also show complex internal diversity and debate that disrupts any simple articulation as purely resistant or accommodating to its hegemonic and oppressive environment Kaalund s investigation into the construction of the New Negro highlights this multiplicity and contends that the rhetoric of place race and gender were integral to these processes of inventing a way of being in the world that was seemingly not reliant on one s physical space Putting these issues into dialogue with 1 Peter and Hebrews allows for a reading of the formation of Christian identity as similarly engaging the rhetoric of place and race in constructive and contested ways

Representing the Past Charlotte M. Canning, Thomas Postlewait, 2010-04-15 Representing the Past is required reading for any serious scholar of theatre and performance historiography original in its conception global in its reach thought provoking and transformative in its effects Gay Gibson Cima author Early American Women Critics Performance Religion Race

illuminates the experiences of the women and girls of the Girls Empowerment Project an Afrocentric womanist single sex after school program located in one of the Bay Area s largest and most impoverished housing developments Stephanie Sears carefully examines the stakes of the complex negotiations of Black womanhood for both the girls served by the project and for the women who staffed it Rather than a multigenerational alliance committed to women s and girls empowerment the women and girls often appeared to struggle against each other with the girls politics of respect often in conflict with the staff s politics of respectability a conflict especially highlighted in the public contexts of dance performances This ground breaking case study offers significant insights into practices of resistance identity work youth empowerment cultural politics and organizational power

Readings in African-American History Thomas R. Frazier,2001 This reader contains historical documents representing the contributions to American history from a wide range of African American life and thought The material is arranged chronologically from the colonial period to the present

Negotiating Cultures and Identities John L. Caughey,2006-12-01 Negotiating Cultures and Identities examines issues methods and models for doing life history research with individual Americans based on interviews and participant observation John L Caughey helps students and other researchers explore the ways in which contemporary Americans are influenced by multiple cultural traditions including ethnic religious and occupational frames of reference Using the example of Salma a bicultural woman of Pakistani descent who lives in the United States and the story of Gina a multicultural American Caughey examines how to capture the complexity of each situation including step by step methods and exercises that lead the student interviewer through the process of locating and interviewing a research participant making sense of the material obtained and writing a cultural portrait Arguing that comparison between the subject s life and one s own is an essential part of the process the methodology also encourages the investigator to research his or her own social and cultural orientations along the way and to contrast these with those of the subject The book offers a practical manageable and engaging form of qualitative research It prepares the student to do grounded experiential work outside the classroom and to explore important issues in contemporary American society including ethnicity race identity disability gender class occupation religion and spirituality as they are culturally understood and experienced in the lives of individual Americans

The New Cambridge Companion to Biblical Interpretation Ian Boxall,Bradley C. Gregory,2022-12-22 This Cambridge Companion offers an up to date and accessible guide to the fast changing discipline of biblical studies Written by scholars from diverse backgrounds and religious commitments many of whom are pioneers in their respective fields the volume covers a range of contemporary scholarly methods and interpretive frameworks The volume reflects the diversity and globalized character of biblical interpretation in which neat boundaries between author focused text focused and reader focused approaches are blurred The significant space devoted to the reception of the Bible in art literature liturgy and religious practice also blurs the distinction between professional and popular biblical interpretation The volume provides an ideal introduction to the various ways that scholars are currently interpreting the Bible It offers both beginning and advanced students an understanding of the state of biblical interpretation and how to explore each topic in greater depth

The Top Books of the Year African American Readings In History And Identity The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. African American Readings In History And Identity : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. African American Readings In History And Identity : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. African American Readings In History And Identity : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
