African-American Perspectives on Crime Causation, Criminal Justice

Administration, and Crime Prevention Anne Thomas Sulton,1996

Fifteen articles written by African American criminologists respond to urban crime and policies to control it The contributors examine the status of African American scholars in the field of criminal justice and consider some of the historical reasons for contemporary escalation of crime and delinquency on a political and psychological level The investigations also offer insights and potential solutions to the problems of drugs gang violence police brutality AIDS and the death penalty Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

African Americans and the Criminal Justice System Marvin D. Free,1996 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare s play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate

Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon,2015-02-11 Ideal for use in either crime theory or race and crime courses this is the only text to look at the array of explanations for crime as they relate to racial and ethnic populations Each chapter begins with a historical review of each theoretical perspective and how its original formulation and more recent derivatives account for racial ethnic differences The theoretical perspectives include those based on religion biology social disorganization strain subculture labeling conflict social control colonial and feminism The author considers which perspectives have shown the most promise in the area of race ethnicity and crime

African American Criminological Thought Helen Taylor Greene,Shaun L. Gabbidon,2012-02-01 This landmark book presents the contributions of African Americans past and present to understanding crime criminological theory and the administration of justice The authors devote individual chapters to African American pioneers Ida B Wells Barnett W E B Du Bois E Franklin Frazier and Monroe N Work and contemporary scholars Lee P Brown Daniel Georges Abeyie Darnell F Hawkins Coramae Richey Mann William Julius Wilson and Vernetta D Young Included for each individual are a biography information on their contributions to criminological thought and a list of selected references A wide range of issues are covered such as lynching the convict lease system homicide female crime and delinquency terrorism community policing the black ethnic monolith paradigm and explanations of criminality

African Americans and Criminal Justice Delores D. Jones-Brown,Beverly D. Frazier,Marvie Brooks,2014-07-15 Does justice exist for Blacks in America This comprehensive compilation of essays documents the historical and contemporary impact of the law and criminal justice system on people of African ancestry in the United States African Americans and Criminal Justice An Encyclopedia comprises descriptive essays documenting the ways in which people of African descent have been victimized by oppressive laws enacted by local state and federal authorities in the United States The entries also describe how Blacks became disproportionately represented in national crime statistics largely through their efforts to resist legalized oppression in early American history and present biographies of famous and infamous Black criminal suspects and victims throughout early American history and in contemporary times Providing coverage of law and criminal justice practices from the precolonial period including the introduction of African slaves up to practices in modern day America this encyclopedia presents a frank and comprehensive view of how Americans of African descent have come to be viewed as synonymous with criminality This book represents an essential learning resource for all American citizens regardless of race or age

Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, 2015-09-11 Written by two of the most prominent criminologists in the field Race and Crime Fourth Edition examines how racial and ethnic groups intersect with the U S criminal justice system Award winning authors Shaun L Gabbidon and Helen Taylor Greene provide students with the latest data and research on White Black Hispanic Latino Asian American and Native American intersections with the criminal justice system Rich with several timely topics such as biosocial theory violent victimizations police bias and immigration policing the Fourth Edition continues to investigate modern day issues relevant to understanding race ethnicity and crime in the United States A thought provoking discussion of contemporary issues is uniquely balanced with an historical context to offer students a panoramic perspective on race and crime Accessible and reader friendly this comprehensive text shows students how race and ethnicity have mattered and continue to matter in the administration of justice

African American Criminologists, 1970-1996 Lee Ross, 1998-04-16 To this date efforts to document the scholarly contributions of exclusively African American criminologists are nonexistent This is a reference work which offers contemporary Afrocentric perspective on critical issues of crime and justice by focusing on the contributions of African American criminologists whose interests and responses to crime arguably differ from those of mainstream white criminologists This reference will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students and faculty in criminal justice and practitioners in policy making Most of the abstracts can be cross referenced to publications within mainstream criminal justice journals In addition selected books manuscripts and an array of state and government documents are included and provide rare Afrocentric perspectives on issues of crime and justice In the process it credits many Caucasians and ethnic minorities as important contributors to a given publication This reference book consists of five chapters 1 an introductory article on issues that define and confront African American criminologists 2 an alphabetical listing of published abstracts for each contributing author 3 selected references to each publication 4 an appendix containing titles to doctoral dissertations for all contributing African American scholars and 5 an author and subject index

Islam in American Prisons Professor Hamid Reza Kusha, 2013-02-28 The growth of Islam both worldwide and particularly in the United States is especially notable among African American inmates incarcerated in American state and federal penitentiaries This growth poses a powerful challenge to American penal philosophy structured on the ideal of rehabilitating offenders through penance and appropriate penal measures Islam in American Prisons argues that prisoners converting to Islam seek an alternative form of redemption one that poses a powerful epistemological as well as ideological challenge to American penology Meanwhile following the events of 9 11 some prison inmates have converted to radical anti Western Islam and have become sympathetic to the goals and tactics of the Al Qa ida organization This new study examines this multifaceted phenomenon and makes a powerful argument for the objective examination of the rehabilitative potentials of faith based organizations in prisons including the faith of those who convert to Islam Crime, Violence and Minority Youths Becky Tatum,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000

Mainstream criminology has devoted little attention to minority perspectives in crime and violence Criminologists who have examined minority perspectives have addressed the issue in a cursory manner providing only brief summaries of the propositions of the perspective This book provides a comprehensive examination of one minority perspective on crime the colonial model Specifically the book discusses how the colonial model applies to African and Hispanic Americans and what the perspective adds to mainstream theorizing It further discusses the limitations of the perspective revises the perspective to improve theoretical validity and subjects the revised perspective to empirical validation Preliminary findings suggest that the colonial model is more effective in explaining African American delinquency
