Philosophy in an African Place Bruce B. Janz, 2009-01-01 Philosophy in an African

Place shifts the central question of African philosophy from Is there an African philosophy to What is it to do philosophy in this African place This book both opens up new questions within the field and also establishes philosophy in place a mode of philosophy which begins from the places in which concepts have currency and shows how a truly creative philosophy can emerge from focusing on questioning listening and attention to difference The Palgrave Handbook of African Philosophy Adeshina Afolayan, Toyin Falola, 2017-11-17 This handbook investigates the current state and future possibilities of African Philosophy as a discipline and as a practice vis vis the challenge of African development and Africa's place in a globalized neoliberal capitalist economy The volume offers a comprehensive survey of the philosophical enterprise in Africa especially with reference to current discourses arguments and new issues feminism and gender terrorism and fundamentalism sexuality development identity pedagogy and multidisciplinary etc that are significant for understanding how Africa can resume its arrested march towards decolonization and liberation A Short History of African Philosophy, Second Edition Barry Hallen, 2009-09-03 A Short History of African Philosophy discusses major ideas figures and schools of thought in philosophy in the African context While drawing out critical issues in the formation of African philosophy Barry Hallen focuses on recent scholarship and relevant debates that have made African philosophy critical to understanding the rich and complex cultural heritage of the continent This revised edition expands the historical perspective takes account of recent discoveries and new canonical figures highlights new discussions about gender as a cultural and philosophical phenomenon clarifies issues regarding indigenous cultures and human rights and builds on the notion that African philosophy shares methods and concerns of philosophy worldwide This short reference is an essential resource for students scholars and general readers

An Introduction to African Philosophy Maurice Muhatia Makumba, 2007 Trends and Issues in African Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odiambo, 2010 This book provides an excellent orientation to and a logical development of the major trends and issues that have dominated discussions in African philosophy since the publication of Placide Tempels Bantu Philosophy in 1945 Views of some of the best known African philosophers such as Kwasi Wiredu Paulin Hountondji H Odera Oruka Peter Bodunrin and D A Masolo are discussed in detail The text takes into account in the form of quotations or referencing the views of several other philosophers who have had something to say about African philosophy This book facilitates an excellent orientation on African philosophy at the undergraduate level Those pursuing African philosophy at the graduate level will find the text refreshingly novel Columbia Companion to Twentieth-century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European Continental traditions The first section features Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy The second section presents Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science The volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by Constantin V Boundas not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and Continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Offering an unusually panoramic perspective the Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies enables readers to encounter foundational materials on their own terms African Philosophies Séverine Kodjo-Grandvaux, 2025-08-19 For many students of philosophy in the West philosophy is understood as a discipline stemming from Ancient Greece embracing the great thinkers of medieval and early modern Europe and continuing through to the present day To the extent that other philosophical traditions are taken into account these tend to be selected philosophical traditions of Asia Rarely is African philosophy considered in this context even though Africa and the West are deeply interconnected through long histories of colonialism and slavery In this important book Séverine Kodjo Grandvaux argues that a serious engagement with African philosophy is long overdue She shows that there is a rich tradition of philosophical thought in Africa that addresses issues ranging from the legacies of colonialism to the nature of time the state responsibility identity dignity and personhood An engagement with African philosophy also offers a fresh perspective on Western philosophy prompting us to interrogate ourselves and our own history Conceptualizing African philosophy becomes a way of conceptualizing the world and of understanding how to know ourselves through the gaze of another African Philosophies is not so much a survey of philosophy in Africa but rather an account of how the question of African philosophy emerged in the second half of the 20th century and of what we can learn from a serious engagement with African philosophy today It will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy in colonial and postcolonial studies and throughout the humanities
