Traditional African Art Avner Shkarov, Lyubov Senatorova, 2015-07-06 The art of sub Saharan Africa reveals the marvelous achievements of unknown artists over thousands of years Their aesthetic ideal finds form in wood ivory fabric bronze and iron This illustrated study of traditional African art includes pieces from Western Sudan the Congolese Basin the Guinea coast Gabon the Democratic Republic of Congo and East and South Africa Each piece is characterized by its own traditions and artistic forms The earliest works date from the beginning of the first millennium the most recent from the early 20th century Unique and rare examples are documented many heretofore virtually unknown

African Sculpture Speaks Ladislav Segy, 2018-12-05 PABLO PICASSO when the form is realized it is there to live its own life HENRY MOORE The sculpture which moves me most is full blooded and self supporting fully in the round giving out something of an energy and power of great mountains it has a life of its own independent of the object it represents African Art Speaks the first full appraisal of African art published in the United States describes and illustrates the sculpted works of more than 150 West African tribes Ladislav Segy approaches African art from several different but interrelated perspectives considering the sculptures first as products of a distinct African culture then as high quality works of art Seeking to bring the African carver's work within the scope of the Western observer Segy stresses the need for appraising African art within in its own context suspending established procedures for art appreciation and viewing the object as it actually is not as we think it is or should be Bringing to bear the disciplines of aesthetics anthropology psychology and phenomenology Segy shows how the deep seated magico religious beliefs of the tribal carver creates such powerful emotional tension in his work that the viewer can recapture this emotion and identify it as part of his own experience This present edition is the Third Printing originally published in 1961 and provides a systematic Style Guide analyzing the characteristic features of the different styles of tribal sculpture A special chapter for the collector tells how to buy and care for African art Segy also discusses the styles of the main sculpture producing tribes in East and South Africa Included are maps a bibliography and a list of illustrations While much has been written about African sculpture within recent years Mr Segy's book is undoubtedly among the finest published in this country The San Francisco Chronicle Metropolitan Fetish John Warne Monroe, 2019-09-15 From the 1880s to 1940 French colonial officials businessmen and soldiers returning from overseas postings brought home wooden masks and figures from Africa This imperial and cultural power play is the jumping off point for a story that travels from sub Saharan Africa to Parisian art galleries from the pages of fashion magazines through the doors of the Louvre to world fairs and international auction rooms into the apartments of avant garde critics and poets to the streets of Harlem and then full circle back to colonial museums and schools in Dakar Bamako and Abidjan John Warne Monroe guides us on this journey one that goes far beyond the world of Picasso Matisse and Braque to show how the Modernist avant garde and the European colonial project influenced each other in profound and unexpected ways Metropolitan Fetish reveals the complex trajectory of African material culture in the West and provides a map of that passage tracing the interaction of cultural and imperial power A broad and far reaching history of the French reception of African art it brings to life an era in which the aesthetic category of primitive art was invented African Sculpture from The University Museum, University of Pennsylvania University of Pennsylvania.
