African Writing And Text Simon Battestini, 2000-05 Contemporary African Literature in English M. Krishnan, 2014-03-20 Contemporary African Literature in English explores the contours of representation in contemporary Anglophone African literature drawing on a wide range of authors including Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Aminatta Forna Brian Chikwava Ngug wa Thiong o Nuruddin Farah and Chris Abani The Francophone African Text Kwaku Addae Gyasi, 2006 Focusing on the African writer and the language of the former colonial power The Francophone African Text Translation and the Postcolonial Experience highlights the writer s re appropriation of the foreign language in the creative writing process It calls attention to the African writer s use of French a process of creative translation in which the writer s words form a hybrid code that compels the original French to refer to the indigenous African language for meaning Examining a group of works under the theme of translation this book reveals that a consideration of both ideological and linguistic elements enhances understanding of the subject from the broader perspective of postcolonial discourse

Perceiving Pain in African Literature Z. Norridge, 2012-11-29 An analysis of literary accounts of suffering from sub Saharan Africa this book examines fiction and life writing in English and French over the last forty years Drawing on writers from the canonical to the less well known it uses close readings to examine the personal social and political consequences of representing pain in literature African Textualities Bernth Lindfors, 1997 African literary texts can be approached in a variety of ways They may be examined in isolation as verbal artifacts that have a unique integrity They may be studied in relation to other texts that preceded and followed them Or they may be seen against the backdrop of the times traditions and circumstances that helped to shape them In this book all these approaches have been utilized sometimes singly sometimes in combination Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study African Literature and Social Change Olakunle George, 2017-10-16 George rethinks the entirety of African literature by considering texts from the 19th century and mid 20th century alongside canonical texts Neil ten Kortenaar author of Debt Law Realism Alert to the ways in which critical theory and imaginative literature can enrich each other African Literature and Social Change reframes the ongoing project of African literature Concentrating on texts that are not usually considered together writings by little known black missionaries so called black whitemen and better known 20th century intellectuals and creative writers Olakunle George shows the ways in which these writings have addressed notions of ethnicity nation and race and how the debates need to be rehistoricized today George presents Africa as a site of complex desires and contradictions refashioning the way African literature is positioned within current discussions of globalism diaspora and postcolonialism A bold exploration of the complexity of different modes of writing about Africa in the context of current debates on the nature of the literary in the production of African knowledge Concerned with a rhetoric of self writing as it has developed over two hundred years Olakunle George attends to local details within the larger configurations of colonial discourse in this ambitious and timely work It is a caution against the neglect of the conditions of possibility that made an African literature possible Simon Gikandi author of Slavery and the Culture of Taste A new and welcome addition to the field of African literary studies Olakunle George's African Literature and Social Change is dense where it needs to be and glories in productive close readings when its objects call for it Comparative Literature Studies South African Writing in Transition Rita Barnard, Andrew van der Vlies, 2019-02-21 Bringing together leading and emerging scholars this book asks the question how has contemporary South African literature grappled with ideas of time and history during the political transition away from apartheid Reading the work of major South African writers such as J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer and Ivan Vladislavic as well as contemporary crime fiction South African Writing in Transition explores how concerns about time and temporality have shaped literary form across the country's literary culture Establishing new connections between leading literary voices and lesser known works the book explores themes of truth and reconciliation disappointment and betrayal Routledge Handbook of African Literature Moradewun Adejunmobi, Carli Coetzee, 2019-03-13 The turn of the twenty first century has witnessed an expansion of critical approaches to African literature The Routledge Handbook of African Literature is a one stop publication bringing together studies of African literary texts that embody an array of newer approaches applied to a wide range of works This includes frameworks derived from food studies utopian studies network theory eco criticism and examinations of the human animal interface alongside more familiar discussions of postcolonial politics Every chapter is an original research essay written by a broad spectrum of scholars with expertise in the subject providing an application of the most recent insights into analysis of particular topics or application of particular critical frameworks to one or more African literary works The handbook will be a valuable interdisciplinary resource for scholars and students of African literature African culture postcolonial literature and literary analysis Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Reading Contemporary African Literature Reuben Makayiko Chirambo, J. K. S. Makokha, 2013 Reading Contemporary African Literature brings together scholarship on critical debates about and examples of reading African literature in all genres poetry fiction and drama including popular culture The anthology offers studies of African literature from interdisciplinary perspectives that employ sociological historical and ethnographic besides literary analysis of the literatures It has assembled critical and researched essays on a range of topics theoretical and empirical by renowned critics and theorists of African literature that evaluate and provide examples of reading African literature that should be of interest to academics researchers and students of African literature culture and history amongst other subjects Some of the essays examine authors that have received little or no attention to date in books on recent African literature These essays provide new insights and scholarship that should broaden and deepen our understanding and appreciation of African literature
