Africans A Triple Heritage:

The Africans Ali A. Mazrui, 1987 Looks at the history geography and culture of Africa assesses native Arab and Western influences and discusses sports religion government and social issues in Africa The Africans, 1987 Controversial examination of contemporary Africa in terms of its triple heritage what is indigenous what was contributed by Islam and what was acquired from the West The Africans Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 1986 Looks at the history geography and culture of Africa assesses native Arab and Western influences and discusses sports religion government and social issues in Africa

Africans John Iliffe, 2017-07-13 In a vast and all embracing study of Africa from the origins of mankind to the present day John Iliffe refocuses its history on the peopling of an environmentally hostile continent Africans have been pioneers struggling against disease and nature but during the last century their inherited culture has interacted with medical progress to produce the most rapid population growth the world has ever seen This new edition incorporates genetic and linguistic findings throwing light on early African history and summarises research that has transformed the study of the Atlantic slave trade It also examines the consequences of a rapidly growing youthful population the hopeful but uncertain democratisation and economic recovery of the early twenty first century the containment of the AIDS epidemic and the turmoil within Islam that has produced the Arab Spring Africans The History of a Continent is thus a single story binding modern men and women to their earliest human ancestors The African Universal Ethiopian Students' Association, The Africans Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 1986 The Triple Heritage of Contemporary Africa Noah Dzobo, 2005 The Cambridge History of Science: Volume 7, The Modern Social Sciences David C. Lindberg, Theodore M. Porter, Roy Porter, Ronald L. Numbers, 2003-08-04 This volume provides a history of the concepts practices institutions and ideologies of social sciences including behavioural and economic sciences since the eighteenth century It offers original synthetic accounts of the historical development of social knowledge including its philosophical assumptions its social and intellectual organization and its relations to science medicine politics bureaucracy philosophy religion and the professions Its forty two chapters include inquiries into the genres and traditions that formed social science the careers of the main social disciplines psychology economics sociology anthropology political science geography history and statistics and international essays on social science in Eastern Europe Asia Africa and Latin America It also includes essays that examine the involvement of the social sciences in government business education culture and social policy This is a broad cultural history of social science which analyzes from a variety of perspectives its participation in the making of the modern world Debating the African Condition Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, Willy Mutunga, 2004 Is Ali Mazrui a visionary or a vacuous intellectual Is he reactionary revolutionary or essentially a radical pragmatist These questions were the focus of a forum intended to interrogate Ali Mazrui's contributions over the last forty years or so of his career as an academic The questions themselves capture the magnitude of the polarisation among different sections of Mazrui's audiences generated by his often provocative propositions and prescriptions on a wide range of issues from the condition of the black woman to the destiny of the black race Nkrumah's Legacy and Africa's Triple Heritage Between Globalization and Counter Terrorism Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2004 This publication comprises the revised texts of a series of three lectures the Aggrey Frazer Guggisberg Memorial lectures delivered by the renowned scholar at the University of Ghana in 2002 The first lecture explores globalisation as the product of religion technology economy and empire It postulates that globalisation can be positive or negative depending upon the values it is realised The second lecture raises question such as Is there such a thing as global Africa Has the black experience itself been globalised with Ghana as a major actor in that globalisation How does this relate to the shadow of terrorism and counter terrorism The third lecture focuses on some of the key personalities of Africa s anti colonial history examining how Africa has sought to move from the shadows of globalisation in quest of an empowered and constructive role in the global order
