Africa's Urban Past:

Africa's Urban Past David Anderson, Richard Rathbone, 2000 A selection of papers first delivered at the conference on Africa's Urban Past held at the School of Oriental and African Studies University of London 1996 Africa's Urban Revolution Doctor Edgar Pieterse, Susan Parnell, 2014-01-09 The facts of Africa's rapid urbanisation are startling By 2030 African cities will have grown by more than 350 million people and over half the continent's population will be urban Yet in the minds of policy makers scholars and much of the general public Africa remains a quintessentially rural place This lack of awareness and robust analysis means it is difficult to make a policy case for a more overtly urban agenda As a result there is across the continent insufficient urgency directed to responding to the challenges and opportunities associated with the world's last major wave of urbanisation Drawing on the expertise of scholars and practitioners associated with the African Centre for Cities and utilising a diverse array of case studies Africa's Urban Revolution provides a comprehensive insight into the key issues demographic cultural political technical environmental and economic surrounding African urbanisation

African Urban Economies D. Bryceson, D. Potts, 2005-12-16 Are Africa's most populous and economically dominant cities a force to reckon with in the twenty first century This book analyzes the economies of East and Southern Africa's apex cities probing how they have altered structurally over time and their current sources of economic vitality and vulnerability at local national and international levels Case study chapters focusing on Johannesburg Chitungwiza Gaborone Maputo Dar es Salaam Mombasa Nairobi Kampala and Mogadishu shed new light on contemporary African urban prospects and problems

African Urban Experiences in Colonial Zimbabwe Tsuneo Yoshikuni, 2007 Before Harare replaced Salisbury as Zimbabwe's capital city in 1982 the name belonged to the country's first black township now called Mbare How and when did the township come into being In this pioneering study Tsuneo Yoshikuni offers a fascinating social history of urban development in the early twentieth century Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi Ross, Kenneth R., Mulwafu, Wapulumuka

O., 2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCracken's contribution to the study of Malawi's history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawi's past and present Routledge Handbook of Urban Planning in Africa

Carlos Nunes Silva, 2019-10-28 This handbook contributes with new evidence and new insights to the on going debate on the decolonization of knowledge on urban planning in Africa African cities grew rapidly since the mid 20th century in part due to rising rural migration and rapid internal demographic growth that followed the independence in most African countries This rapid urbanization is commonly seen as a primary cause of the current urban management challenges with which African cities are confronted This importance given to rapid urbanization prevented the due consideration of other dimensions of the current urban problems challenges and changes in African cities The contributions to this handbook explore these other dimensions looking in particular to the nature and capacity of local self government and to the role of urban governance and urban planning in the poor urban conditions found in most African cities It deals with current and contemporary urban challenges and urban policy responses but also offers an historical overview of local governance and urban policies during the colonial period in the late 19th and 20th centuries offering ample evidence of common features and divergent features as well on a number of facets from intra urban racial segregation solutions to the relationships between the colonial power and the natives to the assimilation policy as practiced by the French and Portuguese and the Indirect Rule put in place by Britain in some or in part of its colonies Using innovative approaches to the challenges confronting the governance of African cities this handbook is an essential read for students and scholars of Urban Africa urban planning in Africa and African

Development Urban Planning in Sub-Saharan Africa Carlos Nunes Silva, 2015-06-03 Cities in Sub Saharan Africa are unequally confronted with social economic and environmental challenges particularly those related with population growth urban sprawl and informality This complex and uneven African urban condition requires an open discussion of past and current urban planning practices and future reforms Urban Planning in Sub Saharan Africa gives a broad perspective of the history of urban planning in Sub Saharan Africa and a critical view of issues problems challenges and opportunities confronting urban policy makers The book examines the rich variety of planning cultures in Africa offers a unique view on the introduction and development of urban planning in Sub Saharan Africa and makes a significant contribution against the tendency to over generalize Africa s urban problems and Africa s urban planning practices Urban Planning in Sub Saharan Africa is written for postgraduate students and advanced undergraduates researchers planners and other policy makers in the multidisciplinary field of Urban Planning in particular for those working in Spatial Planning Architecture Geography and History African Cities Francesca Locatelli, Paul Nugent, 2009 Contemporary Africa is undergoing a period of unprecedented urban expansion which is throwing up new challenges in the provision of essential services and contentious questions about ownership of urban spaces This volume explores the interconnections between these processes whilst avoiding the tendency to forget that cities are also embedded in deeper historical processes that are integral to the framing of entitlements Histories of migrancy and the creation of urban stranger communities are fundamental in deciding who lives where and what this means materially and socially The gated communities that are springing up are often layered across older forms of urban segregation and or segmentation Urban water and food supply the management of urban land claims inequality and popular culture are closely examined Themes in West Africa's History Emmanuel Kwaku

Akyeampong, 2006-01-15 There has long been a need for a new textbook on West Africa s history In Themes in West Africa s History editor Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong and his contributors meet this need examining key themes in West Africa s prehistory to the present through the lenses of their different disciplines The contents of the book comprise an introduction and thirteen chapters divided into three parts Each chapter provides an overview of existing literature on major topics as well as a short list of recommended reading and breaks new ground through the incorporation of original research The first part of the book examines paths to a West African past including perspectives from archaeology ecology and culture linguistics and oral traditions Part two probes environment society and agency and historical change through essays on the slave trade social inequality religious interaction poverty disease and urbanization Part three sheds light on contemporary West Africa in exploring how economic and political developments have shaped religious expression and identity in significant ways Themes in West Africa s History represents a range of intellectual views and interpretations from leading scholars on West Africa s history It will appeal to college undergraduates graduate students and scholars in the way it draws on different disciplines and expertise to bring together key themes in West Africa s history from prehistory to the present

Everyday Urban Practices in Africa Nadine Appelhans, Carmel Rawhani, Marie Huchzermeyer, Basirat Oyalowo, Mfaniseni Fana Sihlongonyane, 2024-08-14 This book disrupts the dominant underlying international norms informing urban development strategies across African cities International policy frameworks have created a new universal agenda for developing cities However these frameworks have also imposed global paradigms and discourses that are often in conflict with local urbanisms As we approach the deadline for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals there is need for reflection and deliberation on a post 2030 agenda The authors identify powerful assumptions norms and positionalities that obfuscate the efforts to achieve sustainable development in African cities as well as along the North South divide They argue that a disruptive critique of these normative concepts grounded in the lived African urban everyday opens up opportunities to dismantle their assumed neutrality Through disruption the authors critically re interpret the meanings of policy and the praxis of local urbanism ultimately challenging the logic of universalising concepts underpinning implementation in the current international policy system and asserting the need for contextualised urban policies The book will be of interest to scholars and students of urban studies development planning urban governance human settlements development studies urban geography and African studies It will also be useful for practitioners including town and regional urban planners urban policy consultants and international development cooperation agencies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
