

Afrikan Woman: The Original Guardian Angel

"To our Ancestors the Black Woman was Mother Sky, Mother Earth, Mother of Everything and she had the power to, through her spiritual essence, move freely throughout the universe. They believed that man could only reach the pinnacle of his spiritual being through her. I know some insecure brothers may not like to hear this, but if you are spiritually attuned and your manhood is intact, then you will understand. And you will do, like our wise Afrikan Ancestors, you will fight to the death to defend her honor because that's where your source of power and Strength comes from. I would now remind my beloved Black Sisters that a positive, optimistic loving woman strengthens and gives life to a man, but an antagonistic, negative or pessimistic one can destroy him. The same applies to brothers in relationship to sisters. Yet in the final analysis, it is the woman who determines what type of treatment she will receive and accept from a man. She is the one who can ultimately inspire him to be a real man because whether he relates to her in the role of a father, brother or lover, he is always her son. This was the way of the ancients."
