After Human:

After Human Thomas Connolly, 2021-04-01 Shortlisted for the British Fantasy Awards Non Fiction 2022 Shortlisted for the Locus Science Fiction Foundation Non Fiction Award 2022 SF has long been understood as a literature of radical potential capable of imagining entirely new worlds and ways of being Yet SF has been slow to embrace posthumanist ideas about the human subject The human of the SF tradition is instead a liminal being caught somewhere between the transcendent Man of classical humanism and the subversive cyborg of posthumanist thought This study offers a critical history of the human in SF By examining a range of SF works from 1818 to the 1970s it seeks to answer some key questions What role does technology play in defining what it means to be or not to be human How do these writers understand the relationship between humanity and the rest of nature And how can we use SF to re examine our ethical position towards the non human world and move to more egalitarian understandings of the human subject The Nineteenth Century and
