Against Forgetting:

Against Forgetting Carolyn Forché, 1993 Modern poems deal with genocide wars revolutions the Holocaust political repression apartheid and the democracy movement in China Memory Against Forgetting Rusty Bernstein, 2017-10-06 Lionel Rusty Bernstein was arrested at Liliesleaf Farm Rivonia on 11 July 1963 and tried for sabotage alongside Nelson Mandela Walter Sisulu Govan Mbeki and other leaders of the African National Congress and Umkhonto we Sizwe in what came to be known as the Rivonia Trial He was acquitted in June 1964 but was immediately rearrested After being released on bail he fled with his wife Hilda into exile followed soon afterwards by their family This classic text first published in 1999 is a remarkable man's personal memoir of a life in South African resistance politics from the late 1930s to the 1960s In recalling the events in which he participated and the way in which the apartheid regime affected the lives of those involved in the opposition movements Rusty Bernstein provides valuable insights into the social and political history of the era AGAINST FORGETTING: TWENTIETH-CENTURY POETRY OF WITNESS. Carolyn Forché, 1995 Against Amnesia Nancy J. Peterson, 2001-04-23 An important study in American literature Against Autonomy Neal Curtis, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Against Autonomy reassesses Jean Francois Lyotard's contribution to philosophy and theory and explores how his work challenges the privileged position of the principle of autonomy in contemporary liberal democratic thinking as seen in such diverse thinkers as Rawls Rorty and Fukuyama Curtis argues that the political models autonomy legitimates are inadequate for thinking justice Such models invariably promote self legislation as the ground of freedom turning the subject away from its prior constitution by and responsibility for the Other He explores Lyotard's reading of Kant as well as his responses to Levinas and Heidegger in order to rethink the political Developing a regulative Idea based on new understandings of heteronomy and anarchy Curtis shows how Lyotard's argument that there are no criteria for justice does not mean judgement and action fall prey to decisionism and relativism but that this lack of criteria commits us to a renewed sensitivity to events Examining Lyotard's work in relation to Arendt's writings on the vita activa this book explores themes of community communication and action suggesting how Lyotard's work calls for an alternative conception of political space This book will be of particular interest to those studying communitarianism liberalism anarchism post structuralism and postmodernism particularly within the context of political philosophy ethics and political and social theory Neal Curtis is Lecturer in Communication Studies Anglia Polytechnic University at Cambridge UK Déjà Vu Peter Krapp, 2004 Referring to a past that never was déjà vu shares a structure not only with fiction but also with the ever more sophisticated effects of media technology Tracing the term from the end of the nineteenth century when it was first popularized in the pages of the Revue philosophique Peter Krapp examines the genealogy and history of the singular and unrepeatable experience of déjà vu This provocative book offers a refreshing counterpoint to the clichéd celebrations of cultural memory and forces us to take a double take on the sanctimonious warnings against forgetting so common in our time Disturbances of cultural memory screen memories false recognitions premonitions disrupt the comfort zone of memorial culture strictly speaking d j vu is neither a failure of memory nor a form of forgetting Krapp s analysis of such disturbances in literature art and mass media introduces historicizes and theorizes what it means to speak of an economy of attention or distraction Reaching from the early psychoanalytic texts of Sigmund Freud to the plays of Heiner M ller this exploration of the effects of d j vu pivots around the work of Walter Benjamin and includes readings of kitsch and aura in Andy Warhol s work of cinematic violence and certain exaggerated claims about shooting and cutting of the memorial character of architecture and of the high expectations raised by the Internet Peter Krapp lecturer in the Department of Cultural Studies and Comparative Literature at the University of Minnesota coedited Medium Cool a special issue of the South Atlantic Quarterly on contemporary media theory He has published in the fields of German studies media studies and literary theory and since 1995 has acted as editor of the Hydra Web site for theories of literature and media

Theoretical Perspectives on Human Rights and Literature Elizabeth Swanson Goldberg, Alexandra Schultheis Moore, 2013-03 What can literary theory reveal about discourses and practices of human rights and how can human rights frameworks help to make sense of literature How have human rights concerns shaped the literary marketplace and how can literature impact human rights concerns Essays in this volume theorize how both literature and reading literarily can shape understanding of human rights in productive ways Contributors to Theoretical Perspectives on Human Rights and Literature provide a shared history of modern literature and rights theorize how trauma ethics subjectivity and witnessing shape representations of human rights violations and claims in literary texts across a range of genres including poetry the novel graphic narrative short story testimonial and religious fables and consider a range of civil political social economic and cultural rights and their representations The authors reflect on the imperial and colonial histories of human rights as well as the cynical mobilization of human rights discourses in the name of war violence and repression at the same time they take seriously Gayatri Spivak s exhortation that human rights is something that we cannot not want exploring the central function of storytelling at the heart of all human rights claims discourses and policies

Memory, History, Forgetting Paul Ricoeur, 2004-08-16 Firstly Paul Ricoeur takes a phenomenological approach to memory He then addresses recent work by historians by reopening the question of the nature and truth of historical knowledge Finally he describes the necessity of forgetting as a condition for the possibility of remembering

Virtues from Hell: Survivors of Conflicts and the Reconstruction-Reconciliation Processes Fidèle Ingiyimbere, 2022-01-01 This book offers a critical examination of certain ideas and values such as remembering forgiveness story telling through Truth and Reconciliation Commissions etc that under gird the transitional practices and mechanisms of societies emerging from conflicts It does so by making the survivors experience the supreme and ultimate judge of the legitimacy of such practices While many scholars have dealt with these topics this book provides a unique perspective on them by using personal stories narratives and memoirs of the survivors as a checking point of the theoretical elaboration of these ideas and values By means of an existential phenomenological analysis of the situation of survivors of gross human rights violations the book assesses how many resources are still available to them so that they can contribute to the processes of reconstruction and reconciliation of their societies This analysis constitutes the background for reading the rest of the book which challenges some assumptions and presumptions of transitional practices such as healing through truth telling or providing justice through reparations It does so by presenting nuanced suggestions on the ways survivors can participate in the reconstruction reconciliation processes without jeopardizing their own well being ,
