Against The Apocalypse Responses To Catastrophe In Modern Jewish Culture:

Against the Apocalypse David G. Roskies, 1984 Looks at the Holocaust as a part of the history of Jewish persecutions and shows how literature and culture were used to bridge these catastrophes The Time of Catastrophe Christopher Dole, Robert Hayashi, Andrew Poe, Austin Sarat, 2016-03-09 If catastrophes are by definition exceptional events of such magnitude that worlds and lives are dramatically overturned the question of timing would pose a seemingly straightforward if not redundant question The Time of Catastrophe demonstrates the analytic productiveness of this question arguing that there is much to be gained by interrogating the temporal conceits of conventional understandings of catastrophe and the catastrophic Bringing together a distinguished interdisciplinary group of scholars the book develops a critical language for examining catastrophic time recognizing the central importance of and offering a set of frameworks for examining the alluring and elusive qualities of catastrophe Framed around the ideas of Agamben Kant and Benjamin and drawing on philosophy history law political science anthropology and the arts this volume seeks to demonstrate how the question of catastrophic time is in fact a question about something much more than the frequency of disasters in our so called Age of Catastrophe The memory of catastrophe Peter Gray, Kendrick Oliver, 2024-07-30 Investigates the dynamic relationship between experiences of profound social and cultural disruption and human memory Critical comparisons are made across a wide variety of catastrophic experiences and memories not just of war but also of massacre genocide rebellion famine partition shipwreck and fire The book is an accessible showcase for a wide range of methodological approaches to the study of memory including literary studies cultural studies participant observation and historical studies and uses a variety of oral visual and written sources Offers a diverse chronological and geographical range of catastrophic cases from seventeenth century England to the recent conflicts in the former Yugoslavia from Ireland to the Indian sub continent from Mexico to wartime Leningrad Well written and accessible a fascinating read

Classic Yiddish Fiction Ken Frieden, 2012-02-01 Yiddish literature despite its remarkable achievements during an era bounded by Russian reforms in the 1860s and the First World War has never before been surveyed by a scholarly monograph in English Classic Yiddish Fiction provides an overview and interprets the Yiddish fiction of S Y Abramovitsh Sholem Aleichem and I L Peretz While analyzing their works Frieden situates these three authors in their literary world and in relation to their cultural contexts Two or three generations ago Yiddish was the primary language of Jews in Europe and America Today following the Nazi genocide and half a century of vigorous assimilation Yiddish is sinking into oblivion By providing a bridge to the lost continent of Yiddish literature Frieden returns to those European traditions This journey back to Ashkenazic origins also encompasses broader horizons since the development of Yiddish culture in Europe and America parallels the history of other ethnic traditions Jesus in Twentieth Century Literature, Art, and Movies Paul C. Burns, 2007-07-15 In the twentieth century a number of novelists artists and filmmakers resurrected the life of Jesus genre made so popular in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries by Renan Strauss and others In addition novelists Norman Mailer Jose Saramago and Ricci have written their own gospels Burns collection taken from a conference at a 2004 regional SBL meeting explores the ways in which these portraits of Jesus continue to fulfill the familiar observation that people tend to depict Jesus in their own image In several of the portraits of Jesus the artists offer a creative response to the realities of the human condition of our time Truth and Lamentation Milton

Teichman, Sharon Leder, 1994 The stories and poems in Truth and Lamentation written during and after the Holocaust reveal the human faces hidden behind the all too familiar statistics of the event International in scope this volume brings together 20 short stories and 90 poems commenting on the essentially incomprehensible nature of the Holocaust Milton Teichman and Sharon Leder have drawn from a remarkably varied range of writers representing nine languages and including both Jews and Gentiles The contributors include the well known and the as yet unknown A critical introduction places the selections within two broad categories of literary response to the Holocaust truth telling and lamentation The first reflects the desire of writers to transmit multiple truths the second expresses sorrow and loss A Companion to the Holocaust Simone

Gigliotti, Hilary Earl, 2020-06-02 Provides a cutting edge nuanced and multi disciplinary picture of the Holocaust from local transnational continental and global perspectives Holocaust Studies is a dynamic field that encompasses discussions on human behavior extremity and moral action A diverse range of disciplines history philosophy literature social psychology anthropology geography amongst others continue to make important contributions to its scholarship A Companion to the Holocaust provides exciting commentaries on current and emerging debates and identifies new connections for research The text incorporates new language geographies and approaches to address the precursors of the Holocaust and examine its global consequences A team of international contributors provides insightful and sophisticated analyses of current trends in Holocaust research that go far beyond common conceptions of the Holocaust s causes unfolding and impact Scholars draw on their original research to interpret current agenda setting historical and historiographical debates on the Holocaust Six broad sections cover wide ranging topics such as new debates about Nazi perpetrators arguments about the causes and places of persecution of Jews in Germany and Europe and Jewish and non Jewish responses to it the use of forced labor in the German war economy representations of the Holocaust witness and many others A masterful framing chapter sets the direction and tone of each section s themes Comprising over thirty essays this important addition to Holocaust studies Offers a remarkable compendium of systematic comparative and precise analyses Covers areas and topics not included in any other companion of its type Examines the ongoing cultural social and political legacies of the Holocaust Includes discussions on non European and non Western geographies inter ethnic tensions and violence A Companion to the Holocaust is an essential resource for students and scholars of European German genocide colonial and Jewish history as well as those in the general humanities Building a City Sheila E. Jelen, Jeffrey Saks, Wendy Zierler, 2023-08-15 The fiction of Nobel Laureate Shmuel

Yosef Agnon is the foundation of the array of scholarly essays as seen through the career of Alan Mintz visionary scholar and professor of Jewish literature at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America Mintz introduced Agnon's posthumously published Ir Umeloah A City in Its Fullness a series of linked stories set in the 17th century and focused on Agnon's hometown Buczacz a town in what is currently western Ukraine to an English reading audience and argued that Agnon's unique treatment of Buczacz in A City in its Fullness navigating the sometimes tenuous boundary of the modernist and the mythical was a full throated self conscious literary response to the Holocaust This volume is an extension of a memorial dedicated to Mintz's memory who died suddenly in 2017 which combines selections of Alan's work from the beginning middle and end of his career with autobiographical tributes from older and younger scholars alike The essays dealing with Agnon and Buczacz remember the career of Alan Mintz and his contribution to the world of Jewish studies and within the world of Jewish communal life

Jews, Catholics, and the Burden of History Eli Lederhendler, 2006-03-02 Volume XXI of the distinguished annual Studies in Contemporary Jewry marks sixty years since the end of the Second World War and forty years since the Second Vatican Council's efforts to revamp Church relations with the Jewish people and the Jewish faith Jews Catholics and the Burden of History offers a collection of new scholarship on the nature of the Jewish Catholic encounter between 1945 and 2005 with an emphasis on how this relationship has emerged from the shadow of the Holocaust

Jews in Russian Literature After the October Revolution Efraim Sicher, 1995-12-07 This work is an innovative and controversial study of how four famous Jews writing in Russian in the early Soviet period attempted to resolve the conflict between their cultural identity and their place in Revolutionary Russia Babel Mandelstam Pasternak and Ehrenburg struggled in very different ways to form creative selves out of the contradictions of origins outlook and social or ideological pressures Efraim Sicher also explores the broader context of the literature and art of the Jewish avant garde in the years immediately preceding and following the Russian Revolution By comparing literary texts and the visual arts the author reveals unexpected correspondences in the response to political and cultural change This study contributes to our knowledge of an important aspect of modern Russian writing and will be of interest to both Jewish scholars and those concerned with Slavonic studies
