Battlefire!: Combat Stories From World War II Arthur L. Kelly, BattleFire! Sue Ballard, 2014-04-23 Pearl Harbor December 7 1941 High on the bridge of the USS West Virginia Sfc Lee Ebner was looking forward to the end of his watch and a relaxed Sunday morning breakfast But the two low flying planes painted with rising sun insignia and bearing down on the ship had other plans for him and his fellow seamen Ten hours later at Clark Field in the Philippines Pfc Jack Reed felt the brunt of another Japanese air attack and within weeks found himself a part of the gruesome Bataan Death March that was to claim the lives of hundred of his comrades On another continent four years into the war Capt Benjamin Butler led his exhausted company up a steep fog shrouded Italian mountain toward a well entrenched German defensive position The odds against their survival were appalling though worse was to come in the months ahead Such were the experiences of many young men plucked from their local communities all across America trained for war and hurled into the strange reality of combat thousands of miles from home In this stunning collection of World War II oral histories Arthur Kelly recreates the experiences of twelve young men from Kentucky who survived the seemingly unsurvivable whether in combat or as prisoners of war BattleFire! Arthur L. Kelly, 2014-04-23 From Pearl Harbor to Leyte Gulf and Okinawa to Iwo Jima the stories are presented as the individual soldiers sailors and marines lived them Gun Week Pearl Harbor December 7 1941 High on the bridge of the USS West Virginia Sfc Lee Ebner was looking forward to the end of his watch and a relaxed Sunday morning breakfast But the two low flying planes painted with rising sun insignia and bearing down on the ship had other plans for him and his fellow seamen Ten hours later at Clark Field in the Philippines Pfc Jack Reed felt the brunt of another Japanese air attack and within weeks found himself a part of the gruesome Bataan Death March that was to claim the lives of hundreds of his comrades On another continent four years into the war Capt Benjamin Butler led his exhausted company up a steep fog shrouded Italian mountain toward a well entrenched German defensive position The odds against their survival were appalling though worse was to come in the months ahead Such were the experiences of many young men plucked from their local communities all across America trained for war and hurled into the strange reality of combat thousands of miles from home In this stunning collection of World War II oral histories Arthur Kelly recreates the experiences of twelve young men from Kentucky who survived the seemingly unsurvivable whether in combat or as prisoners of war A fascinating collection A story of men at their best in the worst of times Louisville Courier Journal This excellent book continues the current trend of exploring the individual soldier s experiences in World War II Military Review Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1999 Committed to Victory Richard Holl, 2015-10-09 Deeply researched and clearly written a wide ranging and detailed account of Kentucky s society economy and politics during World War II John W Jeffries author of Wartime America When World War II broke out in Europe in September 1939 Kentucky was still plagued by the Great Depression Even though the inevitability of war had become increasingly apparent earlier that year the citizens of the

Commonwealth continued to view foreign affairs as a lesser concern compared to issues such as the lingering economic depression the approaching planting season and the upcoming gubernatorial race It was only the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor that destroyed any lingering illusions of peace In Committed to Victory The Kentucky Home Front During World War II author Richard Holl offers the first comprehensive examination of the Commonwealth's civilian sector during this pivotal era in the state's history National mobilization efforts rapidly created centers of war production and activity in Louisville Paducah and Richmond producing new economic prosperity in the struggling region The war effort also spurred significant societal changes including the emergence of female and minority workforces in the state In the Bluegrass this trend found its face in Pulaski County native Rose Will Monroe who was discovered as she assembled B 24 and B 29 bombers and was cast as Rosie the Riveter in films supporting the war effort Revealing the struggles and triumphs of civilians during World War II Holl illuminates the personal costs of the war the black market for rationed foods and products and even the inspiration that coach Adolph Rupp and the University of Kentucky basketball team offered to a struggling state

Donald L Caldwell, 2023-06-14 An incisive readable account of a group of National Guard tankers who fought in the Philippines in the opening phase of America's war in the Pacific Robert S Cameron Ph D military historian and author of Mobility Shock and Firepower The Emergence of the U S Army's Armor Branch 1917-1945 The American Provisional Tank Group had been in the Philippines only three weeks when the Japanese attacked the islands hours after the raid on Pearl Harbor Sent north to meet the Japanese landings in Lingayen Gulf the men of the PTG found themselves thrust into a critical role when the Philippine Army could not hold back the Japanese When General MacArthur ordered the retreat to Bataan the PTG proved itself indispensable During early months of 1942 the light tanks of the PTG patrolled Bataan's beaches encircling and destroying Japanese penetrations and small amphibious landings By April 1942 the situation had become untenable and 15 000 Americans along with 60 000 Filipinos surrendered in one of the worst defeats in U S military history The Provisional Tank Group ceased to exist and its men endured the Bataan Death March the torture and starvation of POW camps the hell ships that took them to Japan and Manchuria for slave labor and the Palawan massacre In an evocatively written book Donald L Caldwell reveals the largely ignored role of tanks in the Philippine campaign Conducting impressive primary research to bring to life the combat history of the PTG Caldwell has dug deeper to tell the stories of soldiers from each of the group's six companies recounting their service from enlistment training and combat to imprisonment liberation and return home Remarkable A well told history highly recommended Jay A Stout LtCol Ret USMC author of Air Apaches

The Necessity For The Destruction Of The Abbey Of Monte Cassino Major John G. Clement, 2015-11-06 The Abbey of Monte Cassino founded by Saint Benedict in A D 529 at the beginning of the Italian campaign was one of only two sites requiring special consideration in the interest of historical preservation The monastery overlooked the only north south road from Naples to Rome The promontory studied by the Italian War College as an example of a position made impregnable by nature was the focal point of the German Gustav Line The German defensive scheme did not include the monastery but did establish positions within 300 meters of its outer walls After the lackluster landing at Anzio the Fifth Army was obligated to conduct a winter campaign to break through the Gustav Line and relieve Anzio In a sinister scape of bush and rock soldiers endured immeasurable hardships while the monastery stood immune to the scars of war On 15 February 1944 253 tons of explosives were dropped on the Abbey of Monte Cassino as hundreds of refugees and wounded assembled in the chapel for morning services The German paratroopers survived the onslaught of Allied airpower without a casualty and occupied the ruins that would serve as a strongpoint for the next four months The perceived necessity for the bombing was nested in leadership interpretation of military necessity psychological impact and political considerations Because the bombing was not coordinated with the ground assault it was tactically irrelevant and failed to meet the requirements of military necessity Decisions made to bolster friendly morale and to avoid political conflict are not intended for the defeat of the enemy and also fail to meet the requirements of necessity The bombing was a careless act resulting in the needless death of civilians destruction of a sacred building and a waste of valuable military resources
