Bay Village The First Ten Years 1971 1981:

Bay Village Byron K. Rust, 2003-11 To the Reader of our father's book This story chronicles the first years of Bay Village a dream brought to fruition Years ago a visionary group of people recognized the need for a caring home for those in their later years Their vision encompassed the desires and needs of the future residents regardless of what the future might hold for them Thus for their active years provision would be made for many social and entertainment activities However if the time came for complete care this would be provided in an excellent professional and caring manner My sisters and I have witnessed the reality of this dream not only in the physical plant but also in the lives of our parents who were among the first residents Many years were spent making new friends and enjoying the many activities that Bay Village offered At all stages of their lives they received as my physician said the best care that Sarasota has to offer Needless to say we are grateful to Bay Village for the quality of life that it provided our parents for many years As the story of Bay Village unfolds we know that residents and family members will be grateful that the vision shared by a few in the past has created a home environment that will continue to be so meaningful to so many Sincerely The daughters of Angelyn and Byron Rust Bay Village, 2003
