Environmental Law and Contrasting Ideas of Nature Keith H. Hirokawa, 2014-07-17 Law's ideas of nature appear in different doctrinal and institutional settings historical periods and political dialogues Nature underlies every behavior contract or form of wealth and in this broad sense influences every instance of market transaction or governmental intervention Recognizing that law has embedded discrete constructions of nature helps in understanding how humans value their relationship with nature This book offers a scholarly examination of the manner in which nature is constructed through law both in the hard sense of directly regulating human activities that impact nature and in the soft manner in which law's ideas of nature influence and are influenced by behaviors values and priorities Traditional accounts of the intersection between law and nature generally focus on environmental laws that protect wilderness This book will build on the constructivist observation that when considered as a culturally contingent concept nature is a self-perpetuating and self-reinforcing social creation Youth Entrepreneurship and Africa's Sustainable Industrialization Farai

Kapfudzaruwa, Masafumi Nagao, Emmanuel Mutisya, 2018-10-18 This book investigates the prospects of Africa's sustainable industrialization with an emphasis on youth entrepreneurship and the mechanisms in place to support both industrial and corporate entrepreneurs The volume addresses two specific issues first industrialization and youth entrepreneurship and secondly youth entrepreneurship training and education The emphasis on youth entrepreneurship to drive sustainable industrialization in Africa is driven by three points first Africa's industrialization is still at its inception with severely limited existing stock of entrepreneurial talents which makes it imperative to look to the continent's bulging youth population the population dividend for the needed supply of successive generations of entrepreneurs Secondly sustainable industrialization would have to be oriented to green ICT and inclusive growth which calls for a change in entrepreneurs' attitudes Finally at the centre of the Africa Rising narrative is a budding new cheetah generation of young entrepreneurs who are highly educated professional and motivated by the need to set up new business models and practices to compete in the Fourth Industrial Revolution This volume forms part of an Education for Sustainable Development in Africa ESDA book series involving the United Nations University Institute for the Advanced Study of Sustainability and 8 partner African universities running Master's Programs in sustainable development The book series is intended to serve primarily as undergraduate and graduate instruction materials for courses on sustainable development in Africa as well as policy input to key developmental issues in Africa 427 Eco-Friendly Business Ideas Mansoor Muallim, Discover 427 innovative and eco-conscious
