Afro American Authors Multi Ethnic Literature:

Afro-American Authors William Adams, 1976 A Companion to Multiethnic Literature of the United States Gary Totten, 2023-12-26 Provides the most comprehensive collection of scholarship on the multiethnic literature of the United States. A Companion to the Multiethnic Literature of the United States is the first in depth reference work dedicated to the histories, genres, themes, cultural contexts, and new directions of American literature by authors of varied ethnic backgrounds. Engaging multiethnic literature as a distinct field of study, this unprecedented volume brings together a wide range of critical and theoretical approaches to offer analyses of African American, Latinx, Native American, Asian American, Jewish American, and Arab American literatures, among others. Chapters written by a diverse panel of leading contributors explore how multiethnic texts represent racial, ethnic, and other identities, center the lives and work of the marginalized and oppressed, facilitate empathy with the experiences of others, challenge racism, sexism, homophobia, and other hateful rhetoric, and much more. Informed by recent and leading edge methodologies within the field, the Companion examines how theoretical approaches to multiethnic literature, such as cultural studies, queer studies, ecocriticism, diaspora studies, and posthumanism, inform literary scholarship, pedagogy, and curricula in the US and around the world. Explores the national, international, and transnational contexts of US ethnic literature. Addresses how technology and digital access to archival materials are impacting the study, reception, and writing of multiethnic literature. Discusses how recent developments in critical theory impact the reading and interpretation of multiethnic US literature. Highlights significant themes and major critical trends in genres including science fiction, drama, and performance, literary nonfiction, and poetry. Includes coverage of multiethnic film, history, and culture, as well as newer art forms such as graphic narrative and hip hop. Considers various contexts in multiethnic literature, such as politics and activism, immigration and migration, and gender and sexuality. A Companion to the Multiethnic Literature of the United States is an invaluable resource for scholars, researchers, undergraduate and graduate students, and general readers studying all aspects of the subject. A Companion to African American Literature Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2013-05-06 Through a series of essays that explore the forms, themes, genres, historical contexts, major authors, and latest critical approaches, A Companion to African American Literature presents a comprehensive chronological overview of African American literature from the eighteenth century to the modern day. Examines African American literature from its earliest origins through the rise of antislavery literature in the decades leading into the Civil War to the modern development of contemporary African American cultural media, literary aesthetics, and political ideologies. Addresses the latest critical and scholarly approaches to African American literature. Features essays by leading established literary scholars as well as newer voices. Afro-American Authors William Adams Brown, 1972 Writing Manhood in Black and Yellow Daniel Y. Kim, 2005 This book is a comparative study of African American and Asian American representations of masculinity and race, focusing primarily on the major works of two influential figures, Ralph Ellison and Frank Chin. Hybridity Vanessa

Guignery, Catherine Pessô-Miquel, François Specq, 2011-09-22 Over the last two decades the unstable notion of hybridity has been the focus of a number of debates in cultural and literary studies and has been discussed in connection with such notions as métissage creolization syncretism diaspora transculturation and in-betweenness The aim of this volume is to form a critical assessment of the scope significance and role of the notion in literature and the visual arts from the eighteenth century to the present day The contributors propose to examine the development and various manifestations of the concept as a principle held in contempt by the partisans of racial purity a process enthusiastically promoted by adepts of mixing and syncretism but also a notion viewed with suspicion by those who decry its multifarious and triumphalist dimensions and its lack of political roots The notion of hybridity is analysed in relation to the concepts of identity nationhood language and culture drawing from the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin Homi Bhabha Robert Young Paul Gilroy and Édouard Glissant among others Contributors examine forms of hybridity in the work of such canonical writers as Daniel Defoe Robert Louis Stevenson Thomas De Quincey and Victor Hugo as well as in contemporary American and British fiction Neo Victorian and postcolonial literature

Race in the Multiethnic Literature Classroom Cristina Stanciu, Gary Totten, 2024-09-10 The contemporary rethinking and relearning of history and racism has sparked creative approaches for teaching the histories and representations of marginalized communities Cristina Stanciu and Gary Totten edit a collection that illuminates these ideas for a variety of fields areas of education and institutional contexts The authors draw on their own racial and ethnic backgrounds to examine race and racism in the context of addressing necessary and often difficult classroom conversations about race histories of exclusion and racism Case studies reflections and personal experiences provide guidance for addressing race and racism in the classroom In depth analysis looks at attacks on teaching Critical Race Theory and other practices for studying marginalized histories and voices Throughout the contributors shine a light on how a critical framework focused on race advances an understanding of contemporary and historical US multiethnic literatures for students around the world and in all fields of study Contributors Kristen Brown Nancy Carranza Luis Cortes Marilyn Edelstein Naomi Edwards Joanne Lipson Freed Yadira Gamez Lauren J Gantz Jennifer Ho Shermaine M Jones Norell Martinez Sarah Minslow Crystal R Perez Kevin Pyon Emily Ruth Rutter Ariel Santos and C Anneke Snyder

Multiethnic Literature and Canon Debates Mary Jo Bona,Irma Maini,2012-02-16

This groundbreaking collection reinvigorates the debate over the inclusion of multiethnic literature in the American literary canon While multiethnic literature has earned a place in the curriculum on many large campuses it is still a controversial topic at many others as recent campus and corporate revivals of The Great Books attest Many still perceive multiethnic literature as being governed by ideological and political issues perpetuating a false distinction between highbrow literary texts and multiethnic works Through historical overviews and textual analyses the contributors not only argue for the aesthetic validity of multiethnic literature but also examine the innovative ways in which multiethnic literature is taught and critiqued The following questions are also addressed Who and what determines literary value What role do scholars students the reading public book awards and or publishers play in affirming literary value Taken together these essays underscore the necessity for maintaining vibrant conversations about the place of multiethnic literature both inside and outside the academy
