Armando Valladares

Against All Hope A Memoir Of Life In Castros Gulag:

Against All Hope Armando Valladares, 2000-04-01 Arrested in 1960 for being philosophically and religiously opposed to communism Armando Valladares was interned at Cuba's infamous Isla de Pinos Prison from whose barred windows he watched the failure of the Bay of Pigs invasion His life in Castro's gulag was a hell of violence and disease putrid food and squalid living conditions forced labor and solitary confinement and hazardous escape attempts Valladares survived by prayer and poetry His writing smuggled out to Europe and the U S made him one of the world's most celebrated prisoners of conscience As a result of pressure from international human rights organizations the Castro regime finally released him in 1982 When Against All Hope first appeared it was immediately compared to Darkness at Noon and other classic prison narratives about the resilience of the human spirit in the face of totalitarianism Now with a new prologue by the author which tells of his life since prison and brings the story of Cuban dissidence up to the case of Elian Gonzalez this story of strength and survival is more relevant than ever

Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. Year Two of Castro's Brutal Crackdown on Dissidents United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Africa, Global Human Rights, and International Operations, 2005. Living on Our Heads Rod Parsley, 2010 Cultural disorientation has become pandemic. Children act like adults and adults act like children. Mother Earth is worshiped but motherhood is despised. Free speech may get you free room and board in jail. Life is denied and death is affirmed. Dictators are treasured but duly elected leaders are treated with contempt. Honest men are smeared while thugs are celebrated. Our nation suffers from an epidemic of upside down thinking and we are poorer and weaker for it. That is the central premise of this new book by Rod Parsley. With a tone that is mildly satirical Parsley uses humor and good natured mockery liberally to poke fun at the absurdity of the twisted positions held by so many cultural elites. Good and evil right and wrong tragic and heroic these were at one time well defined terms in our cultural lexicon. Yet what was then obvious has now become obscure and it requires an unashamedly bold and independent observer to point out just how upside down we have become. Rod Parsley not only describes a culture that has lost its way but also provides a way forward upright and facing true north. The Good Life Charles Colson, 2012-01-12 Sharing from his own life as well as the stories of others. Chuck Colson exposes the counterfeits of the good life and leads readers to the only true source of meaning and purpose. Jesus Christ. But he does that in an unusual way allowing powerful stories to illustrate how people have lived out their beliefs in ways that either satisfy or leave them empty. Colson addresses seekers people looking for the truth. He shows through stories that the truth is knowable and that the truly good life is one that lives within the truth. Through the book readers get to understand their own stories and find answers to their own search for meaning purpose and truth. Access to History for the IB Diploma: Authoritarian States Study and Revision Guide Paul Grace, 2018-09-03 Reinforce knowledge and develop exam skills with revision of key historical content exam focussed activities and guidance from experts as part of the Access to History Series.
