Welcome Unreason Raynalle Udris, 2023-11-27 Faux Titre est une collection d'études en littérature française. Depuis cinquante ans, elle offre une sélection d'essais de haute envergure couvrant l'ensemble du domaine de la recherche littéraire de la littérature médiévale jusqu'à l'extrême contemporain. La collection offre également une plateforme pour de nouvelles pistes de recherche comme les études de traduction, les littératures minoritaires, les études du genre et queer, l'écologie, les sciences humaines, médicales, études hémisphériques, études transatlantiques, études de réseaux et sciences sociales, ainsi que des réflexions sur les études en littérature française en tant que discipline. Faux Titre is a longstanding book series for state-of-the-art research in the field of French language literature. Besides the more classical research in French literature covering the field of Medieval Studies to XXIth century literature, the series offers a platform for new directions in literary studies in relation to translation studies, minority literatures, gender and queer studies, ecology, medical humanities, hemispheric studies, transatlantic studies, network studies and social sciences, as well as reflections on studies in French literature as a discipline. Authors are cordially invited to submit proposals and/or full manuscripts to the publisher at BRILL. Christa Stevens. Please advise our Guidelines for a Book Proposal.

Marguerite Duras Renate Gunther, 2019-01-25 The first book in English to deal exclusively with Duras' cinema, including such films as India Song, Le Camion and Nathalie Granger. Provides a lucid and stimulating introduction to her films, which is accessible to a wide readership, both specialist and non-specialist. Locates the films in their autobiographical as well as social and historical context, making the book broadly interesting to students and teachers in all areas of French Studies. The book's emphasis on gender issues widens its appeal to include those working in Women's Studies, Gender Studies and Gay and Lesbian Studies.

Duras, femme du siècle, 2021-10-18 This collection of papers from an international conference held at the Institut français, London, in 1999 focuses on Marguerite Duras's place within the major literary, political and cultural events that helped define the 20th century. Covering the broad areas of Duras's public persona and paraliterary writings, her engagement with the image and with theatre, the implications of her politico-cultural trajectory and her representations of the body, sexuality and transgression, the diversity of critical approaches deployed in this volume reflects the scope and rich texture of the author's oeuvre and the enduring fascination of the Duras phenomenon.

The Resilient Female Body Women in French (Organization). Conference, 2007 The chapters in this book were first presented at the Women in French Biennial Conference held in Leeds in May 2004. The twelve essays explore the multifaceted commodification of the female body and provide insights into the mutations of French society and culture. British and French scholars examine the paradoxes and contradictions embodied in various images and discourses related to health and illness from different perspectives, ranging from sociological studies to analyses of working diaries, children's medical encyclopaedias and literary texts. The resilient female body, as epitomised by the First World War nurse, tends by the end of the twentieth century to be construed as the sanitised female body, subjected to mind/body dualities largely controlled by the medical professions Thus maternity and related issues such as birth and contraceptive technologies figure as major themes with contributors revealing unresolved ambivalences Other chapters focus on how women s economic activity can affect their individual health and potentially that of others A further prominent theme shows how for contemporary women writers serious illnesses such as cancer and madness in women can be seen as rich metaphors for the ills of a male dominated society Duras s alcoholism and Aragon s portrayals of prostitution are also discussed Revisioning Duras James S. Williams,2000-12-01 The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognised Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been a increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras s work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras s work in the widest sense of the term Marguerite Duras Leslie Hill,2002-09-11 Marguerite Duras is France s best known and most controversial contemporary woman writer Duras influence extends from her early novels of the 1950 s to her radically innovative experimental autobiographical text of the 1980 s The Lover Leslie Hill s book throws new light on Duras relationship to feminism psychoanalysis sexuality literature film politics and the media Feted by Kristeva and Laca who claimed her as almost his other self Duras is revealed to be a profoundly transgressive thinker and artist It will be a must for all concerned with contemporary writing writing by women recent European cinema film and literature A History of Women's Writing in France Sonya Stephens,2000-05-22 This volume was the first historical introduction to women s writing in France from the sixth century to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an introduction in English to the wealth and diversity of French women writers offering fascinating readings and perspectives The volume as a whole offers a cohesive history of women s writing which has sometimes been obscured by the canonisation of a small feminine elite Each chapter focuses on a given period and a range of writers taking account of prevailing sexual ideologies and women s activities in or their relation to the social political economic and cultural surroundings Complemented by an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary works and a biographical guide to more than one hundred and fifty women writers it represents an invaluable resource for those wishing to discover or extend their knowledge of French literature written by women Echo's Voice Mary Noonan,2017-07-05 Helene Cixous 1937 distinguished not least as a playwright herself told Le Monde in 1977 that she no longer went to the theatre it presented women only as reflections of men used for their visual effect The theatre she wanted would stress the auditory giving voice to ways of being that had previously been silenced She was by no means alone in this Cixous s plays along with those of Nathalie Sarraute 1900 99 Marguerite Duras 1914 96 and Noelle Renaude 1949 among others have proved potent in drawing participants into a dynamic space of the voice If as psychoanalysis suggests voice represents a transitional condition between body and language such plays may draw their audiences in to understandings previously never spoken In this ground breaking study Noonan explores the rich possibilities of this new audio vocal form of theatre and what it can reveal of the auditory self The Erotics of Passage NA NA,2016-04-30 Marguerite Duras Laure Adler,2000-12-15 Now available in English the bestseller of France traces the life of one of that country s most prolific yet controversial figures The life of the author of The Lover and The War A Memoir is explored through events central to Duras s career by means of letters unpublished manuscripts and interviews Photos
