

three blackberries left in the whole... " The bear gobbled the berry up just as it was speaking and there were only two blackberries left.

The bear waddled up to the next berry and again opened his mouth wide. The berry shrieked: "There are only two of us. Please do not eat..." "Gobble" went the bear. And there was only one blackberry left in the whole forest. If the bear ate the last berry, there would never be any blackberries in the forest again.

The bear was so fat and slow that it took him quite a while to waddle over to the last berry. The last blackberry said calmly but firmly: "I am the last blackberry. If you do what I tell you before you eat me, I will be the sweetest berry you have ever eaten."

The bear was just about to eat the blackberry, but decided that it would be yummy to have the sweetest berry ever and he stopped just as he was about to close his mouth.

"O.K. blackberry," he said, "what do you want me to do?"

"Go across the way and get that thornbush and then attach it to my plant," said the blackberry.

The bear did as he was told. The thorns made him say "Ouch" and "Ow" while he was working.

Now the bear was so hungry for the sweet blackberry that his mouth watered. But just as he was about to eat, the berry spoke again.
